Economics of Forestry, 1955 Globalization, the Human Condition, and Sustainable Development in the Twenty-first Century Arno Tausch, Almas Heshmati, 2013-10-01 Globalization the Human Condition and Sustainable Development in the Twenty first Century Cross national Perspectives and European Implications is a cross national 175 nation based exploration of the deep crisis in which Europe currently finds itself Investigating the effects of dependency theory and world systems theory upon the global success of eight dimensions of development including democracy environmental sustainability employment social cohesion high quality tertiary education and gender justice this study argues that the current European crisis has been precipitated by the pro globalist policies of the European Commission and that in the near future these policies threaten to enter Europe into a destructive race to the bottom The Institutional Movement in American Economics, 1918-1947 Malcolm Rutherford, 2011-02-21 This book provides a detailed picture of the institutionalist movement in American economics concentrating on the period between the two World Wars The discussion brings a new emphasis on the leading role of Walton Hamilton in the formation of institutionalism on the special importance of the ideals of science and social control embodied within the movement on the large and close network of individuals involved on the educational programs and research organizations created by institutionalists and on the significant place of the movement within the mainstream of interwar American economics In these ways the book focuses on the group most closely involved in the active promotion of the movement on how they themselves constructed it on its original intellectual appeal and promise and on its institutional supports and sources of funding Causality and Causal Modelling in the Social Sciences Federica Russo, 2008-09-18 The anti causal prophecies of last century have been disproved Causality is neither a relic of a bygone nor another fetish of modern science it still occupies a large part of the current debate in philosophy and the sciences This investigation into causal modelling presents the rationale of causality i e the notion that guides causal reasoning in causal modelling It is argued that causal models are regimented by a rationale of variation nor of regularity neither invariance thus breaking down the dominant Human paradigm The notion of variation is shown to be embedded in the scheme of reasoning behind various causal models e g Rubin s model contingency tables and multilevel analysis It is also shown to be latent yet fundamental in many philosophical accounts Moreover it has significant consequences for methodological issues the warranty of the causal interpretation of causal models the levels of causation the characterisation of mechanisms and the interpretation of probability This book offers a novel philosophical and methodological approach to causal reasoning in causal modelling and provides the reader with the tools to be up to date about various issues causality rises in social science Dr Federica Russo s book is a very valuable addition to a small number of relevant publications on causality and causal modelling in the social sciences viewed from a philosophical approach Prof Guillaume Wunsch Institute of Demography University of Louvain Belgium The Education Gazette Cape of Good Hope (South Africa). Tobacco and Health K. Slama,2012-12-06 Over 1 100 delegates from a hundred countries attended the 9th World Conference on Tobacco and Health After five days of debate several important resolutions were adopted unanimously and will be landmarks in the fight against tobacco This great success is due to three facts which emerged from the discussions 1 It appears clearly now that the risks associated with tobacco are much greater than previously assumed Out of two regular smokers one will die from a tobacco related disease 2 Reducing tobacco consumption can be achieved but the data collected in several countries show that it requires a global strategy This strategy was much debated during the conference The resolutions adopted emphasize the agreement of the delegates on the main points Action to fight the growing epidemic of tobacco attributable disease and death involves convincing the general public the medical community and decision makers of the need to act for tobacco control The most efficient tools for helping individuals never to start or successfully to stop using tobacco should be developed effective tobacco control endeavors are required to counteract the actions of the powerful and influential tobacco manufacturers With the help and under the aegis of WHO DICC IUATLD ISFC IOCD and IUHPE an international alliance for health and against tobacco should unite all those who are engaged in this fight Essays Ramesh
