14 November Paper Geography Memo:

Decolonising Geography? Disciplinary Histories and the End of the British Empire in Africa, 1948-1998 Ruth Craggs, Hannah Neate, 2023-10-02 DECOLONISING GEOGRAPHY This book presents an extraordinarily sensitive account of geography's histories in five African countries subjected to British colonial rule. Craggs and Neate draw together political and imaginative processes of decolonisation through an innovative biographical approach that humanizes and enlivens the story of our academic discipline. It will be an invaluable resource for those seeking a deeper understanding of decolonisation, its recent trajectories and far-reaching implications on the African continent. Shari Daya Affiliate Associate Professor in Environmental and Geographical Science, University of Cape Town. By placing the experiences, ideas and practices of African geographers in the center of their analyses, Craggs and Neate provide an unprecedented account of historical and contemporary decolonizing struggles within Geography and the academy. This book should be required reading for all those looking to decolonize the discipline and dislodge it from its Global North histories, institutions and ideologies. Mona Domosh, Professor of Geography, The Joan P and Edward J Foley Jr 1933 Professor, Dartmouth College. This meticulous work explores how colonialism, decolonization and postcolonialism shaped African geography and geographers. It sheds light on efforts to Africanize the discipline, a process which I was both witness to and a participant in. Stanley Okafor, Professor of Geography, Retired, University of Ibadan. How did a generation of academic geographers engage with constitutional decolonisation during the end of the British empire in Africa? In Decolonising Geography: Disciplinary Histories and the End of the British Empire in Africa 1948-1998, Ruth Craggs and Hannah Neate explore how the teaching, research, administration and activism of geographers in Africa shaped the discipline and the post-colonial geopolitics of the continent. The authors follow the professional lives of individual geographers to provide fresh insights into decolonisation in the former British Empire in Africa, drawing from extensive archival research and more than 40 oral history interviews with geographers in Ghana, Nigeria, South Africa, Tanzania and the UK. Decolonising Geography is a must-read for any reader in the UK and Africa with an interest in the relationships between geography and decolonisation.

Radcliffe-Brown Isak Niehaus, 2024-11-01 Alfred Radcliffe-Brown 1881-1995 is widely renowned as a founder of modern social anthropology. This biography challenges popular stereotypes of him as a misplaced positivist and colonial conservative. It shows Radcliffe-Brown to be a thoroughly cosmopolitan scholar, a committed fieldworker and a sharp critic of colonialism. Radcliffe-Brown engaged strategically with colonial authorities to further the interests of his discipline and invoked scientific credentials to critique central aspects of colonial rule. His struggle for intellectual autonomy and advocacy of a comparative sociological approach speaks to many contemporary concerns.

Western Kentucky University Lowell H. Harrison, 2021-12-14 Most Hilltoppers believe that Western Kentucky University is unique. They take pride in its lovely campus, its friendly spirit, the loyalty of its alumni and its academic and athletic achievements. But Western's development also illustrates a major trend in American higher education.

during the past century Scores of other institutions have followed the Western pattern growing from private normal school to state normal school to teachers college to general college finally emerging as an important state university Historian Lowell Harrison traces the Western story from the school s origin in 1875 to the January 1986 election of its seventh president For much of its history Western has been led by paternalistic presidents whose major battles have been with other state schools and parsimonious legislatures In recent years the presidents have been challenged by students and faculty who have demanded more active roles in university governance and by a Board of Regents and the Council on Higher Education which have raised challenging new issues Harrison s account of the institution s development is laced with anecdotes and vignettes of some of the school s interesting personalities President Henry Hardin Cherry whose chapel talks convinced countless students that the Spirit Makes the Master Uncle Ed Diddle whose flying towel and winning teams earned national basketball fame Daddy Bur ton who could catch flies while lecturing Miss Gabie Robertson who held students into the next class period the lone Japanese student who was on campus during World War II Harrison also recalls steamboat excursions the Great Depression and the Second World War the astounding boom in enrollment and buildings in the 1960s the period of student unrest and the numerous fiscal crises that have beset the school This is the story of an institution proud of its past and seeking to chart its course into the twenty first century Title Announcement Bulletin ,1957 Educational

Reconstruction Gary McCulloch,2013-09-05 This book presents a clear overview of the debates that surrounded the making of the 1944 Act which affected every aspect of education in this country It gives a detailed account of the tripartite divisions into three types of child that were sanctioned in the reforms of the 1940s At the same time it also emphasises the idea of education as a civic project which underlay the reforms and which was such an important part of their lasting authority The education policies of the past decade and the current attempts to shape a new education settlement need to be interpreted in a long term historical framework and in particular in relation to the aims and problems of the last great cycle of reform in the 1940s This book makes an important contribution to the development of such a framework and the social history of education policy in this country Britain's Levantine Empire, 1914-1923 Daniel-Joseph MacArthur-Seal,2021 Britain s Levantine Empire 1914 1923 tells a unique history of the impact of British soldiers and government policy on the Eastern Mediterranean during the First World War and its aftermath Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1970

First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Geopolitics, Geography and Strategic History Geoffrey Sloan,2017-02-17 This work explains the course of international politics from the rebirth of the German Empire to the rise of China with particular though not exclusive reference to spatial relationships Antisemitism and Islamophobia in Europe James Renton,Ben Gidley,2017-04-05 This is the first book to examine the relationship between European antisemitism and Islamophobia from the Crusades until the twenty first century in the principal flashpoints of the two racisms With case studies ranging from the Balkans to the UK the contributors take the debate away from politicised

polemics about whether or not Muslims are the new Jews Much previous scholarship and public discussion has focused on comparing European ideas about Jews and Judaism in the past with contemporary attitudes towards Muslims and Islam This volume rejects this approach Instead it interrogates how the dynamic relationship between antisemitism and Islamophobia has evolved over time and space The result is the uncovering of a previously unknown story in which European ideas about Jews and Muslims were indeed connected but were also ripped apart Religion empire nation building and war all played their part in the complex evolution of this relationship As well as a study of prejudice this book also opens up a new area of inquiry how Muslims Jews and others have responded to these historically connected racisms The volume brings together leading scholars in the emerging field of antisemitism Islamophobia studies who work in a diverse range of disciplines anthropology history sociology critical theory and literature Together they help us to understand a Europe in which Jews and Arabs were once called Semites and today are widely thought to be on two different sides of the War on Terror Index, The Papers of the Continental Congress, 1774-1789 ,1978
