14 November Tourism Memorandum:

Nation-building Endeavours: From 1 Apr. 1995 to 14 Nov. 1997 ,1999 Handbook on Heritage, Sustainable Tourism and Digital Media De Ascaniis, Silvia,Cantoni, Lorenzo,2022-02-04 Exploring the impact of the rise of digital media over the last few decades this timely Handbook highlights the major role it plays in preserving and protecting heritage as well as its ability to promote and support sustainable tourism at heritage sites Particularly relevant at this time due to the diffusion of smartphones and use of social media chapters look at the experience and expectation of being always on and how this interacts with heritage and tourism Selling British Columbia Michael Dawson,2007-10-01 Selling British Columbia is an entertaining examination of the development of the tourist industry in British Columbia between 1890 and 1970 Michael Dawson argues that in order to understand the roots of the fully fledged consumer culture that emerged in Canada after the Second World War it is necessary to understand the connections between the 1930s 1940s and the postwar era Cultural producers such as tourism promoters and the state infrastructure played important roles in fostering consumer demand particularly during the Depression the Second World War and throughout the postwar era Dawson draws upon promotional pamphlets newspapers advertisements and films as well as archival sources regarding government civic and international tourism organizations Central to his book is an examination of the representation of popular imagery and of how aboriginal and British cultures were commodified and marketed to potential tourists He also looks at the gendered aspect of these promotional campaigns particularly during the 1940s and challenges earlier interpretations regarding the relationship between tourism and nature in Canada Historians have tended to focus on either the first wave of consumerism from the 1880s to the 1920s or else on the era of economic expansion that followed World War Two As Dawson shows the 1930 45 period in particular was an important and dynamic one in the creation of Canadian and British Columbian consumer culture Michael Dawson s highly readable and engaging account of the development of the British Columbia tourist industry will be welcomed by British Columbian and Canadian historians as well as other scholars of tourism and consumerism Treaties and International Agreements Registered Or Filed and Recorded with the Secretariat of the United Nations United Nations Staff,2003 Treaties and International Agreements Registered or Filed and Recorded with the Secretariat of the United Nations Making Ireland Irish Eric G. E. Zuelow,2009-03-01 From the dark shadow of civil war to the pastel painted towns of today Making Ireland Irish provides a sweeping account of the evolution of the Irish tourist industry over the twentieth century Drawing on an extensive array of previously untapped or underused sources Eric G E Zuelow examines how a small group of tourism advocates inspired by tourist development movements in countries such as France and Spain worked tirelessly to convince their Irish compatriots that tourism was the secret to Ireland s success Over time tourism went from being a national joke to a national interest Men and women from across Irish society joined in eager to help shape their country and culture for visitors eyes The result was Ireland as it is depicted today a land of blue skies smiling faces pastel towns natural beauty ancient history and timeless traditions With lucid prose and vivid detail Zuelow explains how careful planning transformed Irish towns and villages from grey and unattractive to bright and inviting sanitized Irish history to avoid offending Ireland s largest tourist market the English and supplanted traditional rural fairs revolving around muddy animals and featuring sexually suggestive ceremonies with new family friendly festivals and events filling today s tourist calendar By challenging existing notions that the Irish tourist product is either timeless or the consequence of colonialism Zuelow demonstrates that the development of tourist imagery and Irish national identity was not the result of a handful of elites or a postcolonial legacy but rather the product of an extended discussion that ultimately involved a broad cross section of society both inside and outside Ireland Tourism he argues played a vital role in making Ireland Irish Multiregional Economic Development in China Rongxing Guo,Hao Gui,Luc Changlei Guo,2015-04-27 This book provides in an easy to use format an extensive collection of data and information on China s 31 provinces and its interprovincial economic linkages Intended as a comprehensive resource book it profiles the geography demography and economy for each province The materials presented which are gathered from a variety of sources including many not easily found in English language media will be of great value to students researchers business and government agencies and news media professionals who are interested in either individual provinces or China as a whole Treaties in Force ,2014 O.D. Skelton Norman Hillmer,2015-07-06 When O D Skelton became Prime Minister Mackenzie King s foreign policy advisor in 1923 he was already a celebrated critic of the status quo in international and domestic affairs a loyal Liberal Party man and a fervent nationalist who believed Canada needed to steer a path independent of Britain Two years later he became the permanent head of Canada s Department of External Affairs Between then and his tragic death in 1941 Skelton created Canada s professional diplomatic service staffing it with sharp young men such as Lester B Pearson Skelton s importance in Ottawa was unparalleled and his role in shaping Canada s world was formative and crucial Using research from archives across Canada and around the world Norman Hillmer presents Skelton not only as a towering intellectual force but as deeply human deceptively quiet complex and driven by an outsize ambition for himself and for his country O D Skelton is the definitive biography of the most influential public servant in Canada s history written by one of the most prolific Canadian historians of international affairs and the editor of Skelton s voluminous papers Documents Council of Europe: Parliamentary Assembly,2003-03-14 Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1985-11
