Coal and Tobacco J. V. Beckett, 1981-01-22 In Coal and Tobacco Dr Beckett has attempted by analysing the west Cumberland economy and the Lowther's entrepreneurial role to reveal the vital importance of the coal industry Dr Beckett's major study is based on the Lowther papers and reveals the crucial family involvement in these events Unifying Geography David T. Herbert, John A. Matthews, 2004-08-05 It can be argued that the differences in content and approach between physical and human geography and also within its sub disciplines are often overemphasised The result is that geography is often seen as a diverse and dynamic subject but also as a disorganised and fragmenting one without a focus Unifying Geography focuses on the plural and competing versions of unity that characterise the discipline which give it cohesion and differentiate it from related fields of knowledge Each of the chapters is co authored by both a leading physical and a human geographer Themes identified include those of the traditional core as well as new and developing topics that are based on subject matter concepts methodology theory techniques and applications Through its identification of unifying themes the book will provide students with a meaningful framework through which to understand the nature of the geographical discipline Unifying Geography will give the discipline renewed strength and direction thus improving its status both within and outside geography Chinese University Bulletin Chinese University of Hong Kong, 1980 Sessional Papers Printed by Order of the House of Lords, Or Presented by Royal Command, in the Session 40 & 50 Victoriæ (26th January-22d June) and the Session 50 Victoriæ (19th August-7th October) 1841, Arranged in Volumes: Accounts and papers Great Britain. these considerations the purpose of this book is to identify some fundamental philosophical issues involved in the reflection of geography by adopting a perspective which looks at the discipline with a specific focus on its fundamental concepts and distinctions     Abstracts of Papers ,1984
