14 Isizulu November Grade 10 Paper

Stephanie Rudwick

14 Isizulu November Grade 10 Paper :

Zulu Warriors John Laband, 2014-05-27 Toward the end of the nineteenth century the British embarked on a concerted series of campaigns in South Africa. Within three years they waged five wars against African states with the intent of destroying their military might and political independence and unifying southern Africa under imperial control. This is the first work to tell the story of this cluster of conflicts as a single whole and to narrate the experiences of the militarily outmatched African societies. Deftly fusing the widely differing European and African perspectives on events, John Laband details the fateful decisions of individual leaders and generals and explores why many Africans chose to join the British and colonial forces. The Xhosa, Zulu and other African military cultures are brought to vivid life, showing how varying notions of warrior honor and manliness influenced the outcomes for African fighting men and their societies. The People's Zion Joel Cabrita, 2018-06-11 Joel Cabrita tells the story of Zionism which began in a utopian community near Chicago in 1900. Its faith healing, spiritualism, uplifting pan-racialism and missionary zeal resonated with marginalized urban working class whites and blacks in both the United States and Southern Africa. Today Zionism is Southern Africa's largest religious movement. The People's Paper Peter Limb, 2012-09-01 This much awaited volume uncovers the long lost pages of the major African multilingual newspaper Abantu Batho. Founded in 1912 by African National Congress (ANC) convenor Pixley Seme with assistance from the Swazi Queen, it was published up until 1931, attracting the cream of African politicians, journalists and poets. Mqhayi, Nontsisi, Mgqweth and Grendon. In its pages, burning issues of the day were articulated alongside cultural byways. The People's Paper, comprising both essays and an anthology, explores the complex movements and individuals that emerged in the almost twenty years of its publication. The essays contribute rich new material to provide clearer insights into South African politics and intellectual life. The anthology unveils a judicious selection of never before published columns from the paper, spanning every year of its life and drawn from repositories on three continents. Abantu Batho had a regional and international focus and, by examining all these dynamics across boundaries and disciplines, The People's Paper transcends established historiographical frontiers to fill a lacuna that scholars have long lamented. The Ambiguity of English as a Lingua Franca Stephanie Rudwick, 2021-08-29 Grounded in ethnography, this monograph explores the ambiguity of English as a lingua franca by focusing on identity politics of language and race in contemporary South Africa. The book adopts a multidisciplinary approach which highlights how ways of speaking English constructs identities in a multilingual context. Focusing primarily on isiZulu and Afrikaans speakers, it raises critical questions around power and ideology. The study draws from literature on English as a lingua franca, raciolinguistics and the cultural politics of English and dialogues between these fields. It challenges long held concepts underpinning existing research from the global North by highlighting how they do not transfer and apply to identity politics of language in South Africa. It sketches out how these struggles for belonging are reflected in marginalisation and empowerment and a vast range of local, global and glocal identity trajectories. Ultimately, it offers a first lens through which global scholarship on English as a lingua franca can be decolonised in terms of disciplinary limitations geopolitical orientations and a focus on the politics of race that characterize the use of English as a lingua franca all over the world This book will be of interest to students and researchers in linguistic anthropology sociolinguistics World Englishes ELF and African studies
