Democracy, Good Governance, and Corruption in Nigeria 'Lai Olurode,Solomon Oladele Akinboye,2005 The Battle of the Fields Brian Short,2014 This book will appeal not only to historians and geographers but to many who maintain a deep interest in the British countryside and its past and to those who continue to share a fascination for the Second World War in particular the home front The Battle of the Fields tells the story of rural community and authority in Britain during the Second World War by looking at the County War Agricultural Executive Committees From 1939 they were imbued with powers to transform British farming to combat the loss of food imports caused by German naval activity and initial European mainland successes Their powers were sweeping and draconian When fully exercised against recalcitrant farmers dispossession in part or whole could and did result This book includes the most detailed analysis of these dispossessions including the tragic case of Ray Walden the Hampshire farmer who was killed by police after refusing to leave hisfarmhouse in 1940 The committees were deemed successful by Whitehall as harbingers of modernity mechanization draining artificial fertilizers reclamation of heaths marshes and woodlands We now deplore some of these changes but Britain did not starve in large part thanks to their efforts This book will appeal not only to historians and geographers but to many who maintain a deep interest in the British countryside and its past and tothose who continue to share a fascination for the Second World War in particular the home front It will also demonstrate to all who are anxious about food security in the modern age how this question was dealt with 70 years ago BRIAN SHORT is Emeritus Professor of Historical Geography at the University of Sussex and formerly Dean of School and Head of the Department of Geography Lessons in School Improvement from Sub-Saharan Africa Miriam Mason,David Galloway,2021-12-13 Lessons in School Improvement from Sub Saharan Africa describes the planning delivery and evaluation of an improvement programme by EducAid The evaluation showed that children in schools whose teachers had taken part in the programme made more progress in literacy attendance and behaviour than children in control schools Reimagining Nigeria's Educational System Joseph A. Balogun,2023-09-20 This book assesses the challenges within the Nigerian educational system and provides a concrete plan to revitalize the low performing system by strengthening high stakes testing at all levels In Nigeria many citizens believe that the solution to the country s low performance in education is to eliminate high stakes standardized testing High stakes testing refers to applying standardized student achievement tests as a primary mechanism to evaluate students teachers and their school s performance This book argues that the poor quality of education and low ranking of Nigeria s educational system is not related to the negative consequences of high stakes testing but rather is due to many intrinsic factors By conducting a comparative analysis of six high performing education systems worldwide the book offers a comparative summative

evaluation of the educational system and offers recommendations This book will be of interest to policymakers and scholars in the fields of African education higher education quality and global studies African studies management and administration leadership and professional development studies Joseph Abiodun Balogun is former Dean and retired Distinguished University Professor at the College of Health Sciences Chicago State University USA Visiting Professor Program Consultant at the Centre of Excellence in Reproductive Health Innovation University of Benin Nigeria and President CEO Joseph Rehabilitation Center Tinley Park Illinois USA
