14november A Level Economics Paper:

Rethinking the Future of Europe Stefan Schepers, 2014-10-08 Rethinking the Future of Europe has brought together three contrasting collections of contributions the incrementalist perspective concerning the step by step development of Europe the more radical reform restructuring approach to the future of Europe and a view of Europe from the outside

IMF Staff papers, Volume 39 No. 1 International Monetary Fund. Research Dept., 1992-01-01 This paper focuses on exchange rate economics Two main views of exchange rate determination have evolved since the early 1970s the monetary approach to the exchange rate in flexible price sticky price and real interest differential formulations and the portfolio balance approach In this paper the literature on these views is surveyed followed by a discussion of the empirical evidence and likely future developments in the area of exchange rate determination The literature on foreign exchange market efficiency exchange rates and news and international parity conditions is also reviewed Public Finance and Public

Choice John G. Cullis, Philip R. Jones, 2009-07-09 Public Finance and Public Choice provides a comprehensive analysis of the economics of the public sector taking a diagrammatic approach to the subject Particular emphasis is given to the public choice and behavioural economics schools of thought IMF Staff papers International Monetary Fund. Research Dept., 1989-01-01 Although accommodative policies and widespread indexation may account for the persistence of high inflation they cannot explain changes in the inflation rate The causes of such changes for the high inflation episodes immediately preceding the recent heterodox attempts at stabilization in Argentina Brazil and Israel are examined by computing historical decompositions of these episodes based on vector autoregressions distinguishing between the fiscal and balance of payments views of their causes In all three cases nominal exchange rate shocks played the dominant role in triggering an acceleration of inflation JEL 134 Workers in the Margins Cybèle Locke, 2012 Marginalised workers of the late twentieth century were those last hired in times of plenty and first fired in times of recession Often women Maori or people from the Pacific they were frequently unemployed and marginalised within the union movement as well as the labour force WORKERS IN THE MARGINS tells the story of these workers in the tumultuous years of post war New Zealand These were years characterised by massive changes in the workforce as it expanded to accommodate a growing urban Maori population and an increasing desire for women to enter paid work The world of trade unions and employment conflicts such as the 1951 waterfront lockout was vigorous and challenging As free market policies deregulated the labour market and splintered the union movement toward the end of the century Te Roopu Rawakore o Aotearoa the national unemployed and beneficiaries movement gave a new voice to workers in the margins The people of this history come to life through oral histories from the poet and boilermaker Hone Tuwhare building a palisade at Orakei through to activists Sue Bradford and Jane Stevens working with the unemployed in the 1980s and 90s Their experiences speak to the lives of many workers of the early twenty first century Economic Review, 1989 Money and Banking A.
