Advancing Africa's Sustainable Development Alain L. Fymat, 2018-11-14 While many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development the situation is progressively improving This is why the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to contribute to economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa s fourth annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science technology and innovation in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education collaborating in research responding to epidemic diseases with high mortality in Africa and promoting women s interest in science careers The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science technology and innovation in Africa

Radiology in Global Health Daniel J. Mollura, Melissa P. Culp, Matthew P. Lungren, 2018-12-31 Exploring the question as to why more than half the world continues to have little or no access to medical imaging and radiology this important second edition fully revised and expanded offers not only answers but practical solutions providing new tools ideas and strategies for bringing vital radiology to low resource areas Based on RAD AID s ten years of work 2008 2018 serving indigent communities around the world the book s interdisciplinary approach offers the synthesis of business management government policy formulation clinical methods and engineering in order to integrate economic development technology innovation clinical model planning educational strategies and public health measures The gold standard title in the field Radiology in Global Health 2nd Edition is intended for a broad audience including physicians especially radiologists and radiology residents radiology technologists radiology nurses sonographers hardware software engineers policy makers business leaders researchers and public health specialists at all levels who use or implement health care services for underserved populations In addition as health care providers use radiology in the process of clinical decision making this title is also designed for clinical physicians nurses nurse practitioners physician assistants and paramedical personnel Administrators and public health personnel will also be interested as the planning of radiology services for health care systems at both the facility level and at the population level requires a clear understanding of the technological challenges and management opportunities

Equality in Kenya's 2010 Constitution Victoria Miyandazi, 2021-02-25 This book makes a significant contribution to the ongoing global conversations on the various understandings of equality It illuminates the many ways in which diverse equality guarantees clash or are interrelated It also sets out principled approaches on how they can be coherently interpreted to address the myriad inequalities in Kenya Taking a comparative approach the book considers how other jurisdictions including the United States United Kingdom Canada South Africa India and Botswana have approached the conceptualisation interpretation and application of various equality concepts The book focuses on important issues such as transformative constitutionalism in relation to the interpretation of Kenya's 2010 Constitution expanding the list of enumerated grounds for non discrimination affirmative action accommodating religious and cultural diversity versus gender equality the interrelation between socio economic rights and status based equality
