15 2016 Makerereuniversity Admission Form For Under Graduate:

Tanzanian Journal of Population Studies and Development ,2003 Postgraduate Research Engagement in Low Resource Settings Atibuni, Dennis Zami,2019-09-27 The general academic progression and particularly research engagement of postgraduate students is characterized by various problems such as high dropout rates longer completion times low graduation rates and high repetition or retake rates This means that there are far fewer students pursuing postgraduate studies at tertiary institutions and universities than there are at the lower levels of education Yet there is growing demand for postgraduate education given its strong projected association with socioeconomic transformation at national and international levels among developed and developing countries alike Postgraduate Research Engagement in Low Resource Settings sets out to garner strategies for fostering efficiency of research conduct among the students and faculty so as to enhance high quality output for the envisaged personal societal national and international socioeconomic transformation Covering a range of topics such as intellectual property mental health and quality assurance this book is ideal for research supervisors higher education faculty librarians educators administrators researchers academicians and students

The Paris Framework for Climate Change Capacity Building Mizan R Khan,J. Timmons Roberts,Saleemul Huq,Victoria Hoffmeister,2018-04-09 The Paris Framework for Climate Change Capacity Building pioneers a new era of climate change governance performing the foundational job of clarifying what is meant by the often ad hoc one off uncoordinated ineffective and unsustainable practices of the past decade described as capacity building to address climate change As an alternative this book presents a framework on how to build effective and sustainable capacity systems to meaningfully tackle this long term problem Such a reframing of capacity building itself requires means of implementation The authors combine their decades long experiences in climate negotiations developing climate solutions climate activism and peer reviewed research to chart a realistic roadmap for the implementation of this alternative framework for capacity building As a result this book convincingly makes the case that universities as the highest and sustainable seats of learning and research in the developing countries should be the central hub of capacity building there This will be a valuable resource for students researchers and policy makers in the areas of climate change and environmental studies Educational Systems of Africa Martena

Tenney Sasnett,Inez Hopkins Sepmeyer,1967 Monograph outlining the educational system of each African country includes information on primary education secondary education higher education vocational training teacher training technical education etc In respect of examinations certificates and degrees curriculum hours per week for each subject matriculation requirements etc Bibliography pp 1510 to 1550 maps references and statistical tables North-South Knowledge

Networks Towards Equitable Collaboration Between Tor Halvorsen,Jorun Nossun,2017-02-23 Since the 1990s internationalisation has become key for institutions wishing to secure funding for higher education and research For the academic community this strategic shift has had many consequences Priorities have changed and been influenced by new ways of thinking about universities and of measuring their impact in relation to each other and to their social goals Debates are ongoing and hotly contested In this collection a mix of renowned academics and newer voices reflect on some of the realities of international research partnerships They both question and highlight the agency of academics donors and research institutions in the geopolitics of knowledge and power The contributors offer fresh insights on institutional transformation the setting of research agendas and access to research funding while highlighting the dilemmas researchers face when their institutions are vulnerable to state and donor influence Offering a range of perspectives on why academics should collaborate and what for this book will be useful to anyone interested in how scholars are adapting to the realities of international networking and how research institutions are finding innovative ways to make NorthSouth partnerships and collaborations increasingly fair sustainable and mutually beneficial

Knowledge Production and Contradictory Functions in African Higher Education Nico Cloete, Peter Maassen, 2015-03-01 The dominant global discourse in higher education now focuses on world class universities inevitably located predominantly in North America Europe and increasingly East Asia The rest of the world including Africa is left to play catch up But that discourse should focus rather on the tensions even contradictions between excellence and engagement with which all universities must grapple Here the African experience has much to offer the high participation and generously resourced systems of the so called developed world This book offers a critical review of that experience and so makes a major contribution to our understanding of higher education

Ngũgĩ Simon Gikandi, D. Ndirangu Wachanga, 2018 This collection of essays reflects on the life and work of Ngugi wa Thiong'o who celebrated his 80th birthday in 2018 Drawing from a wide range of contributors including writers critics publishers and activists the volume traces the emergence of Ngugi as a novelist in the early 1960s his contribution to the African culture of letters at its moment of inception and his global artistic life in the twenty first century Here we have both personal and critical reflections on the different phases of the writer's life there are poems from friends and admirers commentaries from his co workers in public theatre in Kenya in the 1970s and 1980s and from his political associates in the fight for democracy and contributions on his role as an intellectual of decolonization as well as his experiences in the global art world Included also are essays on Ngugi s role outside the academy in the world of education community theatre and activism In addition to tributes from other authors who were influenced by Ngugi the collection contains hitherto unknown materials that are appearing in English for the first time Both a celebration of the writer and a rethinking of his legacy this book brings together three generations of Ngugi readers We have memories and recollections from the people he worked with closely in the 1960s the students that he taught at the University of Nairobi in the 1970s his political associates during his exile in the 1980s and the people who worked with him as he embarked on a new life and career in the United States in the 1990s First hand accounts reveal how Ngugi s life and work have intersected and the multiple forces that have converged to make him one of the greatest writers to come out of Africa in the twentieth century Simon Gikandi is Robert Schirmer Professor of English Princeton University He was editor of the PMLA the journal of the MLA the Modern Languages Association from 2011 2016 He served as the 2nd and 1st president of the MLA in 2017 and 2018 and is the president elect of the association for 2019 Ndirangu Wachanga is Professor of Media Studies and Information Science at the University of Wisconsin He is also the authorized documentary biographer of Professors Ali A Mazrui Ngugi wa Thiong o and Micere Mugo The Consequences of COVID-19 on the Mental Health of Students Haibo Yang,Li Wang,Chang Liu,2022-08-29 Impact of the Coronavirus Pandemic (COVID-19) on Mood Disorders and Suicide Paul Stokes,Carlo Lai,Paola Aceto,Roger McIntyre,Richard Porter,2022-02-28
