2014 Grade Nine Result:

Lessons from the Kalahari Monica Hendricks, 2020-05-05 Lessons from the Kalahari Tracking Teachers Professional Development explores how Northern Cape teachers who were enrolled in a Bachelor of Education in service course responded to three professional development modules specialising in mathematics education English language teaching and Foundation Phase teaching respectively Mainly through fine grained analyses of their classroom practice the studies in this volume demonstrate how these teachers grappled with new content knowledge and pedagogical innovations to improve the quality of teaching in their classrooms The chapters include case studies that range across a variety of pedagogical topics including mathematics and English teachers classroom practices involvement of parents of Foundation Phase learners and learners autonomous mathematics learning The book makes an original empirically based contribution to the understanding of the challenges confronting primary and secondary school teachers in remote rural parts of Northern Cape province South Africa

Education in Cambodia Vincent McNamara, Martin Hayden, 2022-05-14 This book is the most comprehensive account yet published about the education system in Cambodia It covers all system levels and draws upon the knowledge and insights of a wide range of leading Cambodian and foreign scholars The book focuses on how the system has developed and is making progress Significant achievements over the past two decades are evident but many problems remain including the poor quality of teaching research and institutional management Under funding is an ongoing obstacle but so too is a bureaucratic culture of resistance to change a history of weak governance and an anti reform sentiment deriving from a teacher centred and exam driven curriculum Achieving international standards must now be the system s highest priority To this end the system must rid itself of conservatism complacency and manipulation by parochial vested interests

TRANSITION PROGRAM IN ECONOMICS FOR GRADE 9 HEARING IMPAIRED STUDENTS: BASIS FOR COMPUTER ASSISTED INSTRUCTIONAL MODULE , Research for Educational Change Jill Adler, Anna

Sfard, 2016-06-17 Research for Educational Change presents ways in which educational research can fulfil its commitments to educational practice Focussing its discussion within the context of mathematics education it argues that while research generated insights can have beneficial effects on learning and teaching the question of how these effects are to be generated and sustained is far from evident The question of how to turn research into educational improvement is discussed here in the context of learning and teaching hindered by poverty and social injustice In the first part of the book four teams of researchers use different methodologies while analysing the same corpus of data collected in a South African mathematics classroom In the second part each of these teams makes a specific proposal about what can be done and how so that its research generated insights have a tangible beneficial impact on what is happening in mathematical classrooms Combining two discourses that of researchers speaking to one another and that of researchers communicating their insights to those responsible for educational practice the book deals with the perennial question of communication between those who study educational processes and those who are directly responsible for teacher education educational research and classroom practices This book will be key reading for postgraduates researchers and academics in education and particularly in the areas of mathematics education education research teacher education and classroom practice It will also appeal to teacher educators practitioners and undergraduate students interested in educational research

School Turnaround in Secondary Schools Coby V. Meyers, Marlene J. Darwin, 2019-12-01 In the continuing quest to turnaround the lowest performing schools rapid and sustainable reform or school turnaround seems most elusive for secondary schools Secondary schools are rife with challenges due to their wide ranging mission and organizational complexity With the continued emphasis on college and career readiness and the vast learning possibilities enhanced by technology our third book in this series Contemporary Perspectives on School Turnaround and Reform focuses on rapid school turnaround and reform in secondary schools In this edited volume researchers and scholars consider the doubly perplexing challenge of school turnaround or the rapid improvement of the lowest performing secondary schools Although there is some evidence that school turnaround policy can impact student achievement scores research across international contexts seldom identifies schools that substantially changed student learning trajectories and sustained them Separately many societies have found improving secondary schools a relatively intractable problem for multiple reasons including school size and complexity the micropolitics of teaching and leading within them and cumulative widening student achievement gaps In combination there are almost no examples of low performing secondary schools turning around The chapters in this book begin to offer some hope about how policymakers practitioners and researchers might begin to reconceptualize how they engage in and undertake the work of rapidly improving low performing secondary schools The authors provide theoretical and conceptual advancements offer lessons learned from both successful and unsuccessful initiatives and address practical issues with potentially accessible ways forward

Teaching and Learning Secondary School Mathematics Ann Kajander, Jennifer Holm, Egan J Chernoff, 2018-10-24 This volume brings together recent research and commentary in secondary school mathematics from a breadth of contemporary Canadian and International researchers and educators It is both representative of mathematics education generally as well as unique to the particular geography and culture of Canada The chapters address topics of broad applicability such as technology in learning mathematics recent interest in social justice contexts in the learning of mathematics as well as Indigenous education The voices of classroom practitioners the group ultimately responsible for implementing this new vision of mathematics teaching and learning are not forgotten Each section includes a chapter written by a classroom teacher making this volume unique in its approach We have much to learn from one another and this volume takes the stance that the development of a united vision supported by both research and professional dialog provides the first step

Secondary Education in Ethiopia Rajendra Joshi, Adriaan Verspoor, 2012-11-01 This book discusses reforms that should be undertaken in secondary education to support Ethiopia's transition from a low to middle income economy The most critical reform identified is the introduction of a flexible curriculum that serves the needs of all students including those who may not pursue higher education Monitoring Student Achievement in the 21st Century Heidi Harju-Luukkainen, Nele McElvany, Justine Stang, 2020-04-01 This book draws together leading student assessment academics from across Europe exploring student monitoring policies and practices in a range of countries across 22 chapters The chapters in the first part offer a broad overview on student assessment covering history and current status aims and approaches as well as methodological challenges of international student assessment The second part presents country specific chapters provide an in depth look examining country specific policy and practices and findings of national and or international assessments Findings are critically discussed and recommendations are made for further development of each country s assessment context The book shows similarities and differences within the educational assessment landscape as well as complexity and similarities in assessment policy documents and strategies Given the globalized world we live in today this book fills a need in the higher educational context and is intended for for policy makers in different countries as well

Globalisation and National Identity in History Textbooks Joseph Zajda, 2017-07-06 Globalisation and National Identity in History Textbooks The Russian Federation the 16th book in the 24 volume book series Globalisation Comparative Education and Policy Research discusses trends in dominant discourses of identity politics and nation building in school history textbooks in the Russian Federation RF The book addresses one of the most profound examples of the re writing of history following a geo political change Various book chapters examine debates pertaining to national identity patriotism and the nation building process The book discusses the way in which a new sense of patriotism and nationalism is documented in prescribed Russian history textbooks and in the Russian media debate on history textbooks It explores the ambivalent and problematic relationship between the state globalisation and the construction of cultural identity in prescribed school history textbooks By focusing on ideology identity politics and nation building the book examines history teachers responses to the content of history textbooks and how teachers depict key moments in modern Russian history This book an essential sourcebook of ideas for researchers practitioners and policymakers in the fields of globalisation and history education provides timely information on history teachers attitudes towards historical knowledge and historical understanding in prescribed Russian history textbooks

New Directions in Assessing Historical Thinking Kadriye Ercikan, Peter Seixas, 2015-02-20 New technologies have radically transformed our relationship to information in general and to little bits of information in particular The assessment of history learning which for a century has valued those little bits as the centerpiece of its practice now faces not only an unprecedented glut but a disconnect with what is valued in history education More complex processes historical thinking historical consciousness or historical sense making demand more complex assessments At the same time advances in scholarship on assessment open up new possibilities For this volume Kadriye Ercikan and Peter Seixas have assembled an international array of experts who have collectively moved the fields of history education and assessment forward Their various approaches negotiate the sometimes conflicting demands of theoretical sophistication empirically demonstrated validity and practical efficiency Key issues include articulating the cognitive goals of history education the relationship between content and procedural knowledge the impact of students language literacy on history assessments and methods of validation in both large scale and classroom assessments New Directions in Assessing Historical Thinking is a critical research oriented resource that will advance the conceptualization design and validation of the next generation of history assessments
