2014 Physical Science November Paper 1 National Paper:

What We Think About When We Try Not To Think About Global Warming Per Espen Stoknes, 2015 Today about 98 percent of scientists affirm that climate change is human made and about 2 percent still question it Despite that overwhelming majority though about half the population of rich countries like ours choose to believe the 2 percent And paradoxically this large camp of deniers grows even larger as more and more alarming proof of climate change has cropped up over the last decades This disconnect has both climate scientists and activists scratching their heads growing anxious and responding usually by repeating more facts to win the argument But the more climate facts pile up the greater the resistance to them grows and the harder it becomes to enact measures to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and prepare communities for the inevitable change ahead Is humanity up to the task It is a catch 22 that starts says psychologist and climate expert Per Espen Stoknes from an inadequate understanding of the way most humans think act and live in the world around them With dozens of examples he shows how to retell the story of climate change and apply communication strategies more fit for the task Publisher s description Advances in Neural Networks - ISNN 2014 Zhigang Zeng, Yangmin Li, Irwin King, 2014-11-28 The volume LNCS 8866 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 11th International Symposium on Neural Networks ISNN 2014 held in Hong Kong and Macao China on November December 2014 The 71 revised full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 119 submissions These papers cover all major topics of the theoretical research empirical study and applications of neural networks research as follows The focus is on following topics such as analysis modeling and applications Oil's Deep State Kevin Taft, 2017-10-06 Why have democratic governments failed to take serious steps to reduce carbon emissions despite dire warnings and compelling evidence of the profound and growing threat posed by global warming Most of the writing on global warming is by scientists academics environmentalists and journalists Kevin Taft a former leader of the opposition in Alberta brings a fresh perspective through the insight he gained as an elected politician who had an insider s eyewitness view of the role of the oil industry His answer in brief The oil industry has captured key democratic institutions in both Alberta and Ottawa Taft begins his book with a perceptive observer s account of a recent court case in Ottawa which laid bare the tactics and techniques of the industry its insiders and lobbyists He casts dramatic new light on exactly how corporate lobbyists politicians bureaucrats universities and other organizations are working together to pursue the oil industry s agenda He offers a brisk tour of the recent work of scholars who have developed the concepts of the deep state and institutional capture to understand how one rich industry can override the public interest Taft views global warming and weakened democracy as two symptoms of the same problem the loss of democratic institutions to corporate influence and control He sees citizen engagement and direct action by the public as the only response that can unravel big oil s deep state Ethics and climate change, 2015-07-27 Climate change is the most significant moral and environmental issue of our time This project seeks to help deepen explicit ethical reflection around the world on national responses to climate change by developing a publicly available record on national compliance with ethical obligations for climate change similar to the reports that are now available on national compliance with human rights obligations

Climate Uncertainty and Risk Judith Curry, 2023-06-06 World leaders have made a forceful statement that climate change is the greatest challenge facing humanity in the 21st century However little progress has been made in implementing policies to address climate change In Climate Uncertainty and Risk eminent climate scientist Judith Curry shows how we can break this gridlock This book helps us rethink the climate change problem the risks we are facing and how we can respond to these challenges Understanding the deep uncertainty surrounding the climate change problem helps us to better assess the risks This book shows how uncertainty and disagreement can be part of the decision making process It provides a road map for formulating pragmatic solutions Climate Uncertainty and Risk is essential reading for those concerned about the environment professionals dealing with climate change and our national leaders

Handbook of the Politics of the Arctic Leif Christian Jensen, Geir Hønneland, 2015-09-25 The Arctic has again become one of the leading issues on the international foreign policy agenda in a manner unseen since the Cold War Drawing on the perspectives of geo politics and international law this Handbook offers fresh insights and perspectives on the most pressing issues grouped under the headings of political ascendancy climate and environmental issues resources and energy and the response and policies of affected countries

Sea Level Variability and Change Ivan D. Haigh, Marta Marcos, Sönke Dangendorf, Francisco Calafat, 2017-04-27 In June 2015 we held a workshop on the beautiful island of Mallorca Spain with a focus on sea level variability and change Over 120 sea level experts from around the world attended this workshop from a range of different disciplines The main aims of the workshop were to 1 Evaluate the current state of knowledge of sea level science 2 Identify gaps and unresolved questions in any aspect of sea level science and 3 Design future research to address these issue All aspects of sea level changes were covered from global to regional observations and modelling processes driving mean sea level changes and extremes from the geological scale to the instrumental era and future projections and including impacts on the coastal zones This E Book presents papers that came out of that workshop Overall these papers illustrate the multi disciplinary nature of sea level research cross cutting many fields of research including oceanography meteorology geology coastal morphodynamics engineering and the social economic aspects Collectively these articles represent an interesting range of perspectives and original studies that contribute to understanding the dynamic nature of sea level and its impacts across a wide range of time and space scales Enjoy reading them
