Child Trafficking in the Indo- Myanmar Region Shukhdeba Sharma Hanjabam, Sapam Dilipkumar, Ningthoujam Rameshchandra, 2020-01-01 Human trafficking is one of the fastest growing illegal trades in the world which affects both developed and developing countries alike This book has come to see the light of the day at this crucial juncture when the issue of human trafficking is rising all over the country The north east region of the country particularly Manipur has been a fertile ground for child trafficking having source transit and destination With rich material sources and insightful analysis it primarily focuses on the issues and challenges in combating child trafficking in the North East India particularly in the state of Manipur which shares a long and porous international boundary with Myanmar Research Handbook on International Child Abduction Marilyn Freeman, Nicola Taylor, 2023-06-01 With a focus on the 1980 Hague Convention this cutting edge Research Handbook provides a holistic overview of the law on international child abduction from prevention through voluntary agreements and Convention proceedings to post return and aftercare issues The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child Ton Liefwaard, Julia Sloth-Nielsen, 2016-11-01 In 2014 the world s most widely ratified human rights treaty one specifically for children reached the milestone of its twenty fifth anniversary The UN Convention on the Rights of the Child was adopted after the fall of the Berlin Wall and in the time since then it has entered a new century reshaping laws policies institutions and practices across the globe along with fundamental conceptions of who children are their rights and entitlements and society s duties and obligations to them Yet despite its rapid entry into force worldwide there are concerns that the Convention remains a high level paper treaty without the traction on the ground needed to address ever continuing violations of children s rights This book based on papers from the conference 25 Years CRC held by the Department of Child Law at Leiden University draws together a rich collection of research and insight by academics practitioners NGOs and other specialists to reflect on the lessons of the past 25 years take stock of how international rights find their way into children s lives at the local level and explore the frontiers of children s rights for the 25 years ahead Child Sexual Abuse, Exploitation and Trafficking in the Arab Region Bernard Gerbaka, Sami Richa, Roland Tomb, 2021-06-01 This book presents and brings together research on child sexual abuse from various countries and cultures in the Arab Region It addresses the multiple types of Child Sexual Abuse Exploitation and Trafficking CSAET and responds to the expanding burden of its diverse presentations The book identifies appropriate structures for efficient programs that are to be accepted and developed by diverse cultures in the region in order to develop an action plan to combat sexual violence against children It studies the gathered to date child sexual abuse protection systems in the Arab region covering issues such as children s rights challenges of protection and advocates for peaceful safe healthy and happy environments for children and their families Citizenship Law in Africa: 3rd Edition Manby, Bronwyn, 2016-02-02 Few African countries provide for an explicit right to a nationality Laws and practices governing citizenship effectively leave hundreds of thousands of people in

Africa without a country These stateless Africans can neither vote nor stand for office they cannot enrol their children in school travel freely or own property they cannot work for the government they are exposed to human rights abuses Statelessness exacerbates and underlies tensions in many regions of the continent Citizenship Law in Africa a comparative study by two programs of the Open Society Foundations describes the often arbitrary discriminatory and contradictory citizenship laws that exist from state to state and recommends ways that African countries can bring their citizenship laws in line with international rights norms The report covers topics such as citizenship by descent citizenship by naturalisation gender discrimination in citizenship law dual citizenship and the right to identity documents and passports It is essential reading for policymakers attorneys and activists This third edition is a comprehensive revision of the original text which is also updated to reflect developments at national and continental levels The original tables presenting comparative analysis of all the continent's nationality laws have been improved and new tables added on additional aspects of the law Since the second edition was published in 2010 South Sudan has become independent and adopted its own nationality law while there have been revisions to the laws in Cote d'Ivoire Kenya Libya Mali Mauritania Namibia Niger Senegal Seychelles South Africa Sudan Tunisia and Zimbabwe The African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights and the African Committee of Experts on the Rights and Welfare of the Child have developed important new normative guidance Research Handbook on Child Migration Jacqueline Bhabha, Jyothi Kanics, Daniel Senovilla Hernández, 2018-08-31 The scope and complexity of child migration have only recently emerged as a critical factors in global migration This volume assembles for the first time a richly interdisciplinary body of work drawing on contributions from renowned scholars eminent practitioners and prominent civil society advocates from across the globe and from a wide range of different mobility contexts Their invaluable pedagogical tools and research documents demonstrate the urgency and breadth of this important new aspect of international human mobility in our global age

Reconceptualising Unaccompanied Child Asylum Seekers and the Law Jennifer L. Whelan, 2022-09-30 Unaccompanied child asylum seekers are amongst the world's most vulnerable populations and their numbers are increasing The intersection of their age their seeking asylum and separation from their parents creates a specific and acute triple burden of vulnerability Their precariousness has long been recognised in international human rights law Yet human rights based responses have been subordinated to progressive global securitisation of irregular migration through interception interdiction extraterritorial processing and immigration detention Such an approach necessitates an urgent paradigm shift in how we comprehend their needs as children the impact of punitive border control laws on them and the responsibility of States to these children when they arrive at their borders seeking asylum This book reconceptualises the relationship between unaccompanied child asylum seekers and States It proposes a new conceptual framework by applying international human rights law childhood studies and vulnerability theory scholarship in analysing State obligations to respond to these children This framework incorporates a robust analysis of the operation and impact of laws on vulnerable populations a taxonomy for articulating the gravity of any consequent harms and a method to prioritise recommendations for reform The book then illustrates the framework s utility using Australia s treatment of unaccompanied children as a case study This book illuminates key learnings from human rights law childhood studies and vulnerability theory and transforms them into a new roadmap for law reform As such it will be a valuable practice based resource for practitioners non government organisations advocates policymakers and the general public interested in advocating for the rights of vulnerable populations as well as for academics researchers and students of human rights law refugee law childhood studies and vulnerability studies SDGs in the Americas and Caribbean Region Walter Leal

Filho,Noé Aguilar-Rivera,Bruno Borsari,Paulo R. B. de Brito,Baltazar Andrade Guerra,2023-08-31 This volume provides an overview of the ways sustainable development issues as a whole and the SDGs in particular are perceived and practiced in a variety of countries in the Latin America and Caribbean region It also discusses the extent to which its many socio economic problems hinder progresses towards the pursuit of a sustainable future and documents successful experiences from across the region This book is part of the 100 papers to accelerate the implementation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals initiative Does Torture Prevention Work? Richard Carver,Lisa Handley,2016-07-01 The first systematic analysis of the effectiveness of torture prevention The UN Convention on the Rights of the Child John Tobin,2019-03-28 The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child is the most extensive and widely ratified international human rights treaty This Commentary offers a comprehensive analysis of each of the substantive provisions in the Convention and its Optional Protocols on Children and Armed Conflict and the Sale of Children Child Prostitution and Pornography It provides a detailed insight into the drafting history of these instruments the scope and nature of the rights accorded to children and the obligations imposed on states to secure the implementation of these rights In doing so it draws on the work of the Committee on the Rights of the Child international regional and domestic courts academic and interdisciplinary scholarly analyses It is of relevance to anyone working on matters affecting children including government officials policy makers judicial officers lawyers educators social workers health professionals academics aid and humanitarian workers and members of civil society
