International Yearbook for Research in Arts Education 2/2014 Larry O'Farrell, Shifra Schonmann, Ernst Wagner, 2014 Building on earlier discourse the current yearbook volume continues to focus on questions of research in the field of cultural and arts education from a global perspective This year's volume opens with a review of important contributions to the World Summit in Arts Education held in Wildbad Kreuth Germany in 2013 It continues with the topics of evaluation mapping and monitoring introduced in the first volume Theoretical and practical applications of the key foundations of work in the International Network for Research in Arts Education INRAE are also explored at length Most notably new approaches aimed at linking arts education to peace education and the application of these approaches to education for sustainable development ESD are introduced and explored Graphic Showbiz Nanabanyin Dadson, 2014-05

The State of the Art in Creative Arts Therapies Tal Shafir, Hod Orkibi, Felicity Anne Baker, David Gussak, Girija Kaimal, 2020-07-08 This eBook is a collection of articles from a Frontiers Research Topic Frontiers Research Topics are very popular trademarks of the Frontiers Journals Series they are collections of at least ten articles all centered on a particular subject With their unique mix of varied contributions from Original Research to Review Articles Frontiers Research Topics unify the most influential researchers the latest key findings and historical advances in a hot research area Find out more on how to host your own Frontiers Research Topic or contribute to one as an author by contacting the Frontiers Editorial Office frontiersin.org about contact Popular Music Industries and the State Shane Homan, Martin Cloonan, Jennifer Cattermole, 2015-10-16 This volume studies the relationships between government and the popular music industries comparing three Anglophone nations Scotland New Zealand and Australia At a time when issues of globalization and locality are seldom out of the news musicians fans governments and industries are forced to reconsider older certainties about popular music activity and their roles in production and consumption circuits The decline of multinational recording companies and the accompanying rise of promotion firms such as Live Nation exemplifies global shifts in infrastructure profits and power Popular music provides a focus for many of these topics and popular music policy a lens through which to view them The book has four central themes the changing role of states and industries in popular music activity assessment of the central challenges facing smaller nations competing within larger global music media markets comparative analysis of music policies and debates between nations and also between organizations and popular music sectors analysis of where and why the state intervenes in popular music activity and how and whether music fits within the turn to culture in policy making over the last twenty years Where appropriate brief nation specific case studies are highlighted as a means of illuminating broader global debates Annual Report Hawaii. Department of Education, 1954 Asian Revitalization Katie Cummer, 2021-01-11 Adaptive reuse refers to reusing an old building for a purpose other than which it was originally built or designed This conservation approach has become increasingly popular around the world However there are few publications that focus on its application in Asia This book fills this gap by looking at both unique and shared aspects of adaptive reuse in three Asian urban centers Hong Kong Shanghai and Singapore Building on government policy documents and extensive field work this book contextualizes adaptive reuse in each city and reveals the impetus behind a wide range of projects from revitalization in Hong Kong commercial development in Shanghai to community building in Singapore The introductory chapter sets adaptive reuse within an international perspective noting salient differences and similarities between Asia and other parts of the world It also anchors the discussion within a regional perspective focusing on the similarities and differences between Hong Kong Shanghai and Singapore Each of the following four essays addresses a specific topic about adaptive reuse including its relationship to urban development and sustainability how it benefits heritage buildings and how it reveals best practices in heritage conservation in Asia The subsequent three essays one for each city supplemented with timelines set out a clear framework for understanding the city specific case studies that follow the essays Afterwards fifteen representative projects across the three cities are presented as in depth case studies The pairing of essays and case studies provides a detailed understanding of each city s approach to adaptive reuse in the twenty first century a time when the need for sustainable development solutions are at the forefront Intended for classroom use and professional readership this book will be of considerable value in Asia as well as elsewhere providing material for stimulating and worthwhile discussion Asian Revitalization is a highly practical and accessible volume on the long established conservation practice of adaptive reuse in East Asia Its focus on real life issues examples and challenges posed by revitalization programs in the region is extremely relevant to researchers and practitioners in architectural conservation urban design and urban studies Miles Glendinning University of Edinburgh Scotland This is a superb well documented and original book written by some of the best known and highly respected authors in the field of heritage conservation The carefully examined case studies illustrate a wide variety of solutions that highlight the work of some of the best minds of the next generations Alastair Kerr University of Victoria Canada This is a most interesting set of essays informative and thought provoking The best way to save any heritage building is by keeping it in beneficial use and how to achieve this in a sensitive manner is what these essays are about They should be vital reading for anyone considering an adaptive reuse project in Asia Michael Morrison Purcell UK With cultural heritage firmly ensconced in the global development agendas of the United Nations this well grounded volume draws upon the experience of Hong Kong SAR Shanghai and Singapore to demonstrate to scholars and practitioners alike how historic properties can be sustained through savvy adaptive reuse in the midst of tremendous urban redevelopment pressures Montira Horayangura Unakul UNESCO Bangkok Thailand

Diverse Voices in Chinese Translation and Interpreting Riccardo Moratto, Martin Woesler, 2021-02-02 This book presents a thoughtful and thorough account of diverse studies on Chinese translation and interpreting TI It introduces readers to a plurality of scholarly voices focusing on different aspects of Chinese TI from an interdisciplinary and international perspective The book brings together eighteen essays by scholars at different stages of their careers with different relationships to translation and interpreting studies Readers will approach Chinese TI studies from different standpoints namely socio historical literary policy related interpreting and contemporary translation practice Given its focus the book benefits researchers and students who are interested in a global scholarly approach to Chinese TI The book offers a unique window on topical issues in Chinese TI theory and practice It is hoped that this book encourages a multilateral dynamic and international approach in a scholarly discussion where more often than not approaches tend to get dichotomized This book aims at bringing together international leading scholars with the same passion that is delving into the theoretical and practical aspects of Chinese TI Daily Graphic Ransford
