2014 Kzn March Life Science Paper:

The Legacy of a Troubled Past Bernard Cros, Mathilde Rogez, Gilles Teulie, 2022-06-07 Since the advent of democracy in 1994 South Africa has been engaged in an unprecedented exercise of national soul searching torn between the need to lay to rest centuries of racial conflict and the desire to come to terms with its traumatic history This book asks whether the country has begun to turn the corner on the legacy of collective hurt To do so it ranges in scope across 350 years of South African history encompassing the struggle against the apartheid regime the downfall of white supremacy the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the first 25 years of democracy up to more recent movements such as RhodesMustFall or the inquests into the 2012 Marikana massacre that point to the persistence of traumatic memory in contemporary society The authors assembled here set out to analyse the representation of such memory how it has been woven into narratives recorded preserved and questioned and how issues of individual and collective responsibility have been grafted onto it through the visual arts literature political discourse and public action In focusing on memory along with its derived forms of memorialization collective memory nostalgia or post memory our contributors pose a fundamental question is South Africa finally coming to the end of the post apartheid transition period Do the decades of memory work on racial violence and repression examined here hold out hope for the nation to make peace with its past Drivers of small-mammal community structure in tropical savannas Bradley J. Bergstrom, Ara Monadjem, Christopher Richard Dickman, Emerson M.

Vieira, 2023-06-06 How Social Movements Imagine Bobby Luthra Sinha, 2024-08-30 This book examines how micro contextual issues inspire collective social action forms against everyday situations of crises and crimes through an interdisciplinary ethnographic and comparative research conducted among Bishnois and Indian South Africans Exploring the role of the publics that practise and mobilise their social movement imaginations the work delves into peoples ability to move beyond their immediate contexts and politicise multiple social spaces and discursive spheres around them to project their causes Mapping an anti poaching movement spearheaded by the Bishnois of Western Rajasthan in India and an anti substance abuse movement led by the historical Indian diaspora of South Africa the author argues that such contemporary forms of organised social action replete with alternative frames symbols and repertoires possess key requisites to be understood as the Newer Social Movements of the Global South The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of social and protest movements migration and diaspora studies political science social anthropology and ethnography Perspectives on the Legislature and the Prospects of Accountability in Nigeria and South Africa Omololu Fagbadebo, Fayth Ruffin, 2018-08-03 This book examines the problem of accountability in two African political systems South Africa and Nigeria Despite the principle of separation of powers and the doctrine of checks and balances among the institutions of governance a burgeoning governance crisis stifles the potential of accountability and good governance Legislative oversight in the two countries remains largely ineffective while citizens are left to face the consequences of the mismanagement of public resources by political elites This book critically assesses how the legislative institutions in South Africa and Nigeria have been unable to harness the requisite constitutional powers to ensure accountability in government and explores the feasibility of their effectiveness The book begins with a comparative analysis of the principles tradition and powers associated with legislative capability in South Africa and Nigeria The chapters explore constitutional provisions and analyze the capacity of each legislature to function within its respective political environment The book also examines the process and challenges associated with the various measures and mechanisms available for legislatures to ensure accountability in the two countries Researchers scholars and students of African politics will find this book useful in their understanding of the problems associated with the simmering governance crisis in South Africa and Nigeria
