2014 March Sesotho Paper

Monwabisi K. Ralarala, Salochana
Lorraine Hassan, Rajani Naidoo

2014 March Sesotho Paper:

The Report: South Africa 2014 Oxford Business Group, 2014-12-08 Indeed since the end of apartheid in 1994 South Africa has become a major diplomatic player both on the African continent as well as further afield Despite the size of South Africa's economy the country currently faces a number of major economic challenges As of the end of July 2014 the unemployment rate was at 25.5% according to data from Statistics South Africa which was among the highest in the world While the government's long term development plans are generally highly regarded delivery and execution has occasionally been problematic While there are major hurdles that must be cleared given the country's strong institutions and the rapid pace of economic expansion over the past two decades South Africa should be able to look forward to 20 more years of peace and steady sustained economic growth

The Times Do Not Permit Christine Lucia, 2024-10 This biography of Michael Mosoeru Moerane 1904-1980 surveys the unique life times and music of the first classically educated African composer in southern Africa

Towards Human Rights in Residential Care for Older Persons Helen Meenan, Nicola Rees, Israel Doron, 2015-07-30 People are leading significantly longer lives than previous generations did and the proportion of older people in the population is growing Residential care for older people will become increasingly necessary as our society ages and we will require more of it At this moment in time the rights of older people receive attention at international and regional levels with the United Nations the Organization of American States and the African Union exploring the possibility of establishing new conventions for the rights of older persons This book explores the rights of older people and their quality of care once they are living in a care home and considers how we can commence the journey towards a human rights framework to ensure decent and dignified care for older people The book takes a comparative approach to present and future challenges facing the care home sector for older people in Africa Kenya the Arab world Egypt Australia China England Israel Japan and the USA An international panel of experts have contributed chapters identifying how their particular society cares for its older and oldest people the extent to which demographic and economic change has placed their system under pressure and the role that residential elder care homes play in their culture The book also explores the extent to which constitutional or other rights form a foundation to the regulatory and legislative structures to residential elder care and it examines the important concept of dignity As a multi regional study of the care of older person from a human rights perspective this book will be of excellent use and interest in particular to students and researchers of family and welfare law long term care social policy social work human rights and elder law

Knowledge Beyond Colour Lines Monwabisi K. Ralarala, Salochana Lorraine Hassan, Rajani Naidoo, 2021-05-25 Knowledge remains timely in education The need for academics to contemplate its relevance worth use and everything in between deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge Through original research and the voices of academics and students this book argues for repurposing knowledge generation knowledge sharing and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained The contentious tensionalities that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines Prof Shan Simmonds PhD NWU This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa The issues dealt with here are varied and encompassing They are treated with intellectual delicacy and probing sensitivity articulacy informed data and bold conclusions They serve well Prof Kwesi Kwaa Prah Emeritus Professor of Sociology University of the Western Cape Founder of the Centre for Advanced Studies of African Society

The Oxford Guide to the Bantu Languages Lutz Marten, Ellen Hurst-Harosh, Nancy C. Kula, Jochen Zeller, 2025-08-19 This volume brings together leading scholars from Africa Europe the Americas and beyond to provide a detailed account of the languages of the Bantu family which cover an area from Cameroon and Kenya in the north to South Africa in the south The Bantu family is part of the Niger Congo phylum and one of the world's biggest language groups comprising around 500 languages The family includes major languages with large numbers of speakers such as Zulu Kinyarwanda and Swahili the most widely spoken and taught African language as well as many community languages and several endangered languages Bantu languages feature prominently in the complex and multilingual language ecologies that are characteristic of the linguistic situation in much of Africa and they provide rich evidence for the study of theoretical and comparative linguistics language contact and language change They play an important role in education commerce culture and artistic expression in the media and public discourse in governance and social justice and are central to the future of the continent and the well being of its communities The first part of The Oxford Guide to the Bantu Languages provides background and context with chapters exploring the history of research in the field language and prehistory in Bantu speaking Africa and typology and variation Chapters in the second part offer broad comparative overviews of Bantu phonology morphology syntax semantics and pragmatics socio and applied linguistics before Parts III VII cover more specific topics in Bantu linguistics across a variety of subfields ranging from structural issues such as the augment and melodic tone to historical and sociolinguistic topics such as Bantu languages in the diaspora and language policy and standardization The chapters in the final part offer individual structural overviews of a range of languages from across the Bantu speaking area The book will be an essential resource for students and researchers specializing in the Bantu languages and for typologists and comparative linguists more broadly

African perspectives on selected marine, maritime and international trade law topics Patrick Vrancken, Charl Hugo, 2021-02-16 This book is the culmination of research collaboration between the Nelson Mandela University and the University of Johannesburg and in particular between the South African Research Chair in the Law of the Sea and Development in Africa housed at Nelson Mandela University and the Centre for Banking Law housed at the University of Johannesburg The topics considered have their roots respectively in international law environmental law public law and international trade law The common denominator is the sea Navigating African Biblical Hermeneutics Madipoane Masenya Ngwan'a Mphahlele, Kenneth N. Ngwa, 2019-01-15 This collection interrogates and engages the biblical text colonial and postcolonial subjectivities and cultural assumptions as well as lived experiences that encompass varying Africana contexts and Diasporas In order to do this it deploys methodologies exegetical analyses and critical and constructive communal epistemologies Framed by historical literary cultural and theological engagements of issues around wealth and power gender sexualities and masculinities HIV and AIDS as well as the crises of war and mass violence the book will be very useful for students academics clergy and laity committed to Africana conscious epistemologies and methodologies and the impact on biblical studies The Spirit of Leadership Reuel Khoza, 2024-05-01 In 2023 Reuel Khoza unsealed a letter to the future which he had written in 1999 when he was chair of Eskom at the time recognised as the best power utility in the world It was an optimistic letter expressing hopes that have since been dashed by corruption and maladministration by a failure of ethical leadership Khoza has written about leadership before considering the importance of intelligence emotional intelligence and social awareness Now he broadens his focus to explore the role of spirituality a faith quotient in transformational leadership The Spirit of Leadership is about faith in humanity and above all faith in God It is about being an African and a Christian and a strong believer in the virtues of ubuntu Africa's philosophy of humanness It is about ancestral wisdom and modern leadership It is about progress through ethical behaviour and good governance in business Finally it is about innovations of the spirit that are needed to save South Africa and indeed the world from a spiral of despair This is a vital and timely book for a country that needs to rediscover its moral compass Theory and Practice of Writing William Grabe, Robert B. Kaplan, 2014-09-25 This book undertakes a general framework within which to consider the complex nature of the writing task in English both as a first and as a second language The volume explores varieties of writing different purposes for learning to write extended text and cross cultural variation among second language writers The volume overviews textlinguistic research explores process approaches to writing discusses writing for professional purposes and contrastive rhetoric It proposes a model for text construction as well as a framework for a more general theory of writing Later chapters organised around seventy five themes for writing instruction are devoted to the teaching of writing at the beginning intermediate and advanced levels Writing assessment and other means for responding to writing are also discussed William Grabe and Robert Kaplan summarise various theoretical strands that have been recently explored by applied linguists and other writing researchers and draw these strands together into a coherent overview of the nature of written text Finally they suggest methods for the teaching of writing consistent with the nature processes and social context of writing Radio, Public Life and Citizen Deliberation in South Africa Sarah Chiumbu, Gilbert Motsaathebe, 2021-05-24 This book critically analyses the important role of radio in public life in post apartheid South Africa

As the most widespread and popular form of communication in the country radio occupies an essential space in the deliberation and the construction of public opinion in South Africa. From just a few state controlled stations during the apartheid era there are now more than 100 radio stations reaching vast swathes of the population and providing an important space for citizens to air their views and take part in significant socio economic and political issues of the country. The various contributors to this book demonstrate that whilst print and television media often serve elite interests and audiences the low cost and flexibility of radio has helped it to create a common space for national dialogue and deliberation. The book also investigates the ways in which digital technologies have enhanced the consumption of radio and produced a sense of imagined community for citizens including those in marginalised communities and rural areas. This book will be of interest to researchers with an interest in media politics and culture in South Africa specifically as well as those with an interest in broadcast media more generally.
