Dogs, Past and Present Ivana Fiore, Francesca Lugli, 2023-09-07 This volume gathers contributions from scholars from a variety of disciplines to provide a comprehensive assessment of the importance of dogs through history There is a focus on the necessity of an interdisciplinary perspective to fully understand the fundamental role that dogs have played in our past Buddhist and Islamic Orders in Southern Asia R. Michael Feener, Anne M. Blackburn, 2018-11-30 Over the last few decades historians and other scholars have succeeded in identifying diverse patterns of connection linking religious communities across Asia and beyond Yet despite the fruits of this specialist research scholars in the subfields of Islamic and Buddhist studies have rarely engaged with each other to share investigative approaches and methods of interpretation This volume was conceived to open up new spaces of creative interaction between scholars in both fields that will increase our understanding of the circulation and localization of religious texts institutional models ritual practices and literary specialists The book's approach is to scrutinize one major dimension of the history of religion in Southern Asia religious orders Orders here referring to Sufi ar qas and Buddhist monastic and other ritual lineages established means by which far flung local communities could come to be recognized and engaged as part of a broader world of co religionists while presenting their particular religious traditions and their human representatives as attractive and authoritative to potential new communities of devotees Contributors to the volume direct their attention toward analogous developments mutually illuminating for both fields of study Some explain how certain orders took shape in Southern Asia over the course of the nineteenth century contextualizing these institutional developments in relation to local and transregional political formations shifting literary and ritual preferences and trade connections Others show how the circulation of people ideas texts objects and practices across Southern Asia a region in which both Buddhism and Islam have a long and substantial presence brought diverse currents of internal reform and notions of ritual and lineage purity to the region All chapters draw readers attention to the fact that networked persons were not always strongly institutionalized and often moved through Southern Asia and developed local bases without the oversight of complex corporate organizations Buddhist and Islamic Orders in Southern Asia brings cutting edge research to bear on conversations about how orders have functioned within these two traditions to expand and sustain transregional religious networks It will help to develop a better understanding of the complex roles played by religious networks in the history of Southern Asia Climate-Smart Sugarcane Cultivation Rajan Bhatt, Krishan K. Verma, Shiv Prasad, Mauro Wagner de Oliveira, 2025-10-21 Sugarcane is a crucial eco friendly cash crop with massive agro industrial value as a sweetener and a source of renewable energy Known for its high varietal resistance to changing climate scenarios sugarcane is also reported to be prone to biotic stresses like drought water logging salinity multiple soil related problems and nutrient deficiencies This new volume is a 700 plus page comprehensive resource offering state of the art practical information on sugarcane cultivation and management based on the practical experience knowledge and research from around the world Key features Discusses the impact of global warming and climate change on sugarcane production and offers mitigation and adaptation strategies Presents a plethora of new climate smart technologies for sugarcane cultivation and management Considers climate smart sugarcane fertilization
