2014 Zimsec Papers:

Evaluation of the Zimbabwe Livelihoods and Food Security Programme Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2022-06-24 This report presents the results of the evaluation of the Zimbabwe Livelihoods and Food Security Programme LFSP GCP ZIM 025 UK implemented by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO between 2013 and 2021 The programme sought to contribute to poverty reduction by actively addressing the specific constraints that smallholder farmers particularly women faced in raising the productivity of their farms and participating in markets

Food Systems Profile – Zimbabwe Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2022-08-03 Food systems are intimately linked to our lives through the food we eat our nutrition and health our livelihoods jobs and the environment and natural resources of the planet The main challenge for food systems is to produce nutritious food for all while preserving our biodiversity and environment and ensuring equitable distribution of wealth This Food Systems Profile provides a summary of the main food system issues in Zimbabwe and highlights potential solutions for their sustainable and inclusive transformation It is the result of a systemic analysis and stakeholders consultation that was part of a global assessment of food systems in over 50 countries following a joint initiative by the EU FAO and CIRAD which aims at catalyzing the sustainable and inclusive transformation of food systems

Minerals Yearbook ,2014 Shifting Journalism Boundaries in Zimbabwe Mphathisi Ndlovu, Lungile Tshuma, 2025-12-03 This book investigates the ways in which peripheral news actors in digital media are transforming journalism in Zimbabwe Journalism s boundaries have become blurred porous and fuzzy as non traditional news actors such as bloggers social media influencers citizen journalists start ups satirists comedians and fact checkers gain increasing influence in digital spaces As legacy news media attempt to ring fence the field journalism becomes both boundaried and boundless This book examines how peripheral journalistic practices are impacting Zimbabwe a semi authoritarian regime facing significant economic pressures Taking into account Zimbabwe s specific sociocultural political and economic context this book explores how political issues are mediated by periphery actors how they deal with challenges to their legitimacy and professionalism how sustainable their positions are and finally what the implications of shifting journalistic boundaries are for education and training institutions As the impact of digital technologies continues to rise this timely book will be an important read for researchers working on journalism media and communication and African studies

New Urban Agenda in Zimbabwe Charles Chavunduka, Innocent Chirisa, 2024-06-23 This book presents ways of shaping the built environment sciences and practices for steering the New Urban Agenda in Zimbabwe Attention to the built environment disciplines and practice is important because of their centrality to economic dynamism and sustainability of urban services The reverse relationship is also true because through provision of norms aspirations and guidelines the New Urban Agenda helps in steering the built environment disciplines and practice The book begins by exploring theoretical and conceptual material on the built environment concept It recognizes that sub Saharan African countries and Zimbabwe in particular are operating in a changing environment of rapid urbanization unemployment and inequality Its premise is that the built environment sciences and practice can make a contribution to addressing sustainable development challenges through the introduction of innovations in infrastructure institutions and processes that enhance socio economic growth and development The book brings together scholarship from various disciplines in the built environment and presents sector initiatives such as those relating to curricula smart technologies and cutting edge innovations in steering sustainable urban development

Protection of Socio-economic Rights in Zimbabwe. A Critical Assessment of the Domestic Framework Under the 2013 Constitution of Zimbabwe Ntandokayise Ndhlovu, 2016-09 Socio economic inequality is deeply rooted in Zimbabwe due to a number of factors One of the main factors is the exclusion of socio economic rights as justiciable under the now repealed Lancaster House Constitution LHC A plethora of excessive bureaucratic actions in a number of instances left many people stranded without the recourse to the law particularly without protection by the Constitution To correct this historic anomaly the 2013 Constitution was enacted The 2013 Constitution protects both civil and political rights and socio economic rights in the same way as justiciable rights This provides the highest degree of interdependence and interrelatedness of all rights in the domestic legal order In order to ensure that socio economic rights are effectively protected and enforced this study identifies and discusses the framework for protecting socio economic rights under the 2013 Constitution Firstly the specific rights protected under the Constitution and the obligations imposed by these rights are presented Secondly the role of the courts in the protection of socio economic rights is discussed Further some of the major conceptual and practical challenges that are likely to arise in the adjudication of socio economic rights are identified In this regard the study attempts to present solutions meant to overcome the conceptual and practical challenges that are faced in the enforcement of socio economic rights Furthermore this study argues that strictly adopting one of the two models of review namely either the reasonableness approach as adopted by South African courts or the minimum core approach as expounded by the United Nations Committee on Economic Social and Cultural Rights CESCR will inhibit the proper enforcement of the protected rights Therefore courts should consider adopting an integrated model that includes both approaches to ensure that socio economic rights are effectively protected and realised

Validating Technological Innovation David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders

The Southern African Development Community in Zimbabwe Rich Mashimbye, 2024-02-13 This book narrates the unravelling of Zimbabwe a country that was once considered an inspiration on the continent of Africa in terms of socioeconomic development Recognising that many factors contributed to the collapse of the nation and that this collapse was a process that occurred over a long period it looks at historical events and processes like the colonisation of the country and dispossession of the indigenous people and the misrule politically motivated violence and economic mismanagement that followed under Robert Mugabe as the pivotal moments that precipitated the subsequent fall of Zimbabwe The book also examines the role that the regional intergovernmental organisation the Southern African Development Community SADC played in trying to help Zimbabwe overcome its security political and economic challenges Kanyenze: Zimbabwe: The Link Between Politics and ,2023-03-20 In this accessible and authoritative book Godfrey Kanyenze provides a comprehensive and far reaching analysis of the socio economic development in Zimbabwe in light of the expanding authoritarianism and the ongoing destruction of democratic institutions during the four decades after independence Kanyenze describes the various phases of the socio economic development starting with 1980 when the people of Zimbabwe saw their hard won independence and new democracy as a promise for a Ancient and Indigenous Wisdom Traditions in African and Euro-Asian Contexts Ehaab Abdou,Theodore Zervas,2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts The book offers a range of important studies from key African and Euro Asian contexts including Afghanistan Albania Greece Iran South Africa Sweden T rkiye and Zimbabwe The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward towards more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond It will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy
