2015 2016 Postgraduate Admissions At Makerere University:

Postgraduate Research Engagement in Low Resource Settings Atibuni, Dennis Zami, 2019-09-27 The general academic progression and particularly research engagement of postgraduate students is characterized by various problems such as high dropout rates longer completion times low graduation rates and high repetition or retake rates This means that there are far fewer students pursuing postgraduate studies at tertiary institutions and universities than there are at the lower levels of education Yet there is growing demand for postgraduate education given its strong projected association with socioeconomic transformation at national and international levels among developed and developing countries alike Postgraduate Research Engagement in Low Resource Settings sets out to garner strategies for fostering efficiency of research conduct among the students and faculty so as to enhance high quality output for the envisaged personal societal national and international socioeconomic transformation Covering a range of topics such as intellectual property mental health and quality assurance this book is ideal for research supervisors higher education faculty librarians educators administrators researchers academicians and students

Doctoral education in context Jan Botha, Liezel Frick, Nompilo Tshuma, 2025-09-29 Doctoral Education in Context Perspectives from Africa shares lived experiences and insights of doctoral supervisors from 16 different countries in Africa The book's originality lies also in the contributors' profiles as practicing novice doctoral supervisors All of them graduated from the Training Course for Supervisors offered by the Centre for Research on Evaluation Science and Technology CREST at Stellenbosch University in South Africa with the support of the German Academic Exchange Service DAAD German Rectors Conference HRK through the DIES Programme The authors' commitment to doctoral supervision in their particular context is shown in each chapter Many edited volumes bring together the voices of often established researchers in this book we hear first hand the voices of novice supervisors who are willing to learn and share their insights and experiences in doctoral supervision This perspective makes the unique strength and originality of the book This book is for anyone involved in the research and practice of doctoral supervision in Africa and the global context Readers and doctoral supervisors outside Africa will learn much about the challenging world of doctoral supervision in Africa

Intra-Africa Student Mobility in Higher Education Chika Trevor Sehoole, Jenny J. Lee, 2022-01-01 This book examines student mobility within Africa International student mobility is among the central activities of higher education internationalization As the number of international students increase so do the destinations in both number and geographic diversity Historically international student mobility has followed South North and North North patterns However recent literature shows the growth in North South and South South patterns of student mobility There has also been a rise in regional mobility In what is referred to in the book as intra Africa mobility the book explores and analyzes the patterns of intra Africa mobility based on seven African countries South Africa Kenya Uganda Nigeria Ghana Senegal and Egypt The editors and contributors address three central research questions Why did the students choose the country they are studying in Why did they choose the institution they are studying in What are their academic and social experiences in these countries and their respective institutions This book is the first comprehensive exploration of intra Africa student mobility in a field that traditionally centers on the Global North

Transforming Research Excellence McLean, Robert ,Tijssen, Robert,Wallace, Matthew L.,Kraemer-Mbula, Erika,2020-01-18 Modern day science is under great pressure A potent mix of increasing expectations limited resources tensions between competition and cooperation and the need for evidence based funding is creating major change in how science is conducted and perceived Amidst this perfect storm is the allure of research excellence a concept that drives decisions made by universities and funders and defines scientists research strategies and career trajectories But what is excellent science And how to recognise it After decades of inquiry and debate there is still no satisfactory answer Are we asking the wrong question Is reality more complex and excellence in science more elusive than many are willing to admit And how should excellence be defined in different parts of the world particularly in lower income countries of the Global South where science is expected to contribute to pressing development issues despite often scarce resources Many wonder whether the Global South is importing with or without consenting the flawed tools for research evaluation from North America and Europe that are not fit for purpose This book takes a critical view of these issues touching on conceptual issues and practical problems that inevitably emerge when excellence is at the center of science systems Emerging from the capacity building work of the Science Granting Councils Initiative in sub Saharan Africa it speaks to scholars as well as to managers and funders of research around the world Confronting sticky problems and uncomfortable truths the chapters contain insights and recommendations that point towards new solutions both for the Global South and the Global North

Handbook of Research on Multicultural Perspectives on Gender and Aging Pande, Rekha,van der Weide, Theo,2018-04-27 As people grow older cultural issues arise Recognizing how social influences guide and restrict people leads to a better understanding of one s self and helps people as they age The Handbook of Research on Multicultural Perspectives on Gender and Aging provides emerging research on midlife issues physical aspects of aging and the emotional value in the context of the culture in which people are living While highlighting topics such as elderly disabilities quality of life and gender dimensions this publication explores self esteem in older members of society This book is an important resource for academicians healthcare professionals professionals researchers and students seeking current research on the social and cultural characteristics of growing old

Strengthening Postgraduate Supervision Sioux McKenna,Jenny Clarence-Fincham,Chrissie Boughey,Harry Wels,Henk van der Heavel,2017-03-22 An excellent collection of diverse and deeply reflective perspectives All offer insights into the multiple challenges confronted in improving the quality and depth of postgraduate supervision increasing throughput and dealing with complexity What is also affirmed is the importance of individual capability in supervision that is developed and nurtured over time and through arduous effort The book will be of value to novice supervisors and to more experienced ones Policy makers planners and administrators looking to enlarge their understanding of the postgraduate terrain in all its complexities will find the mix of theoretical and practical lenses through which the topic is approached particularly illuminating Professor Narend Bajinath Chief Executive Officer Council on Higher Education African Perspectives on Reshaping Rural Development Mafukata, Mavhungu Abel, Tshikolomo, Khathutshelo Alfred, 2019-11-22 Development studies in developing regions such as Southern Africa rely heavily on materials developed by Europeans with a European context European dominance in development studies emanates from the fact that the discipline was first developed by Europeans Some argue that this has led to distortions in theory and practice of development in Southern Africa This book wishes to begin Africa's expedition to develop proper material to de Westernize while Africanizing the context of the scholarship of rural development African Perspectives on Reshaping Rural Development is an essential reference source that repositions the context of rural development studies from the Western centric knowledge system into an African context in order to solve African centered problems Featuring research on topics such as food security poverty reduction and community engagement this book is ideally designed for planners researchers practitioners policymakers government officials academicians and students seeking clarity on theory and practice of development in Africa Lugalla: Rethinking Teacher Education, 2023-06-27 Rethinking Teacher Education Improvement Innovation and Change is the result of the conference organised by The Aga Khan University Institute for Educational Development East Africa AKU IED EA on education in Uganda in 2017 The Conference gathered participants from nine countries to deliberate on a cross section of factors regarding teacher education in the region and landscaping the same on global perspectives The choice of the conference theme was inspired by a need to consider new systems policies structures and reforms to help drive sustainable education for the development of nations in the East African region A variety of contributors participated from across the education landscape and included researchers working in higher education practitioners such as teachers in schools tutors instructors in colleges and lecturers and professors at universities Also contributing were non governmental organisations with interests in education and student learning outcomes civil society organisations whose interests navigate the role education plays in social and national development policy makers and curriculum developers librarians publishers booksellers and teacher trainees all of who shared their rich experiences and perspectives on teacher education in the 21st century in East Africa and globally Regulatory Frameworks and Justice Systems Dr. Ben Kajwang PhD, Melissa W. Muindi, Olayo Julius Ochieng PhD, Emmanuel Musango Ebolloh, Ngole Elizabeth Nneh Obi, 2023-12-06 TOPICS IN THE BOOK Effect of Government and Regulatory Framework on Growth of Insurance Industry Unravelling the Triangle Clarifying the Employment Status Within Outsourcing Triangular Employment Relationships in Kenya Examining Application of Psychological Contract in Administering Justice in Labour Courts in Kenya Incorporation of Criminological Theories in the Cameroonian Criminal Justice System Challenges Relating to the Collection and Distribution of Royalties for Musical Works in Cameroon Higher Education Transformation in Africa Emnet Tadesse

Woldegiorgis, Logan Govender, Dennis Zami Atibuni, 2024-11-05 This book critically interrogates the notion of transformation in higher education focusing on epistemological and structural issues in postcolonial and contemporary Africa The book considers the multifaceted challenges facing higher education in the continent and uses the concept of transformation as a common thread weaving through a range of issues including epistemology identity relevance research collaboration and decoloniality Arguing for a holistic approach towards progressive and innovative education systems the book calls for a fundamental transformation that expands access enhances quality and competitiveness addresses past injustices and improves the capacity to act together for a more sustainable and just future Overall the book makes a powerful case for the power of transformation in higher education to shape the social economic and cultural fabric of society This book s critical evaluation of knowledge production in Africa will be an important read for researchers and policymakers involved in Africa s higher education sector
