Thrilling and illuminating LA Times A hypnotic psychological thriller People A chance encounter sparks an unrelenting web of lies in this new gripping and complex psychological thriller from the New York Times bestselling author of The Good Girl and the upcoming page turner Don t You Cry Mary Kubica She sees the teenage girl on the train platform standing in the pouring rain clutching an infant in her arms She boards a train and is whisked away But she can t get the girl out of her head Heidi Wood has always been a charitable woman she works for a nonprofit takes in stray cats Still her husband and daughter are horrified when Heidi returns home one day with a young woman named Willow and her four month old baby in tow Disheveled and apparently homeless this girl could be a criminal or worse But despite her family s objections Heidi invites

Willow and the baby to take refuge in their home Heidi spends the next few days helping Willow get back on her feet but as clues into Willow's past begin to surface Heidi is forced to decide how far she's willing to go to help a stranger What starts as an act of kindness quickly spirals into a story far more twisted than anyone could have anticipated More Praise Hypnotic and anything but predictable Kirkus starred review A superb psychological thriller stunning Publishers Weekly starred review Read the New York Times bestselling novel that everyone is talking about The Good Girl by Mary Kubica Look for Mary's latest complex and addictive tale of deceit and obsession Don't You Cry Order your copies today Place Reinvention

Torill Nyseth, Arvid Viken, 2009 Through an interdisciplinary range of case studies from across the Northern rim of Europe this volume shows how place reinvention as a concept affects not only global cities but also marginal regions Divided into three main sections economic symbolic and political the book explores how these all affect and are affected by place reinvention and how these interlink Transformative Fictions Daniel Just, 2022-07-27 Transformative Fictions World Literature and Personal Change engages with current debates in world literature over the past twenty years addressing the nature of literary influence in centers and peripheries the formation of transnational literary and pedagogical canons and the role of translation and regionalism in how we relate to texts from around the globe The author Daniel Just argues for a supranational but sub global perspective of regions that emphasizes practical reasons for reading and focuses on the potential of literary texts to stimulate personal transformation in readers One of the recurring dilemmas in these debates is the issue of delimitation of world literature The trouble with the world as a frame of reference is that no single researcher is bound to have the in depth knowledge and linguistic skills to discuss works from all countries In response this book revives literary theory and recasts it for the purposes of world literature by making a case for the continuing relevance of literature in the age of new media With the examples of fictional and nonfictional writings by Milan Kundera Witold Gombrowicz and Bohumil Hrabal Just shows that regional literatures offer differing methods of activating readers and thereby prompting personal change This book would be of general interest to anyone who wants to explore personal change through literature but is particularly indispensable for literary professionals researchers and postgraduate and graduate students Honor
