Ananias Helps Saul Craft:

The Little Oxen Programme Booklet Walter Firth, 2017-07-25 When author and high school teacher Walter Firth attempted to start a Christian after school programme he found that the traditional curriculum sources had not been meeting the demands of today's society. By putting his teaching skills to good use he began formulating a programme designed to engage with students' emotional, moral, intellectual, social and spiritual development. The Little Oxen Programme Booklet presents a set of lessons designed for either after school activities or Sunday school. They are designed to be fun and exciting whilst supporting and nurturing children in a safe and caring environment. Building on biblical stories and intended for a two person teaching team, each lesson includes a range of activities including arts, crafts and drama. These work to engage students' attention and convey important messages to young people. Insightful and practical, this programme of biblical studies guides the development of children and youth in a way that current Christian material tends to miss. Adventures in Habit-craft Henry Park Schauffler, 1926 The Theology of Craft and the Craft of Work Jeremy Kidwell, 2016-06-03 An important reconceptualisation is taking place in the way people express creativity, work together and engage in labour, particularly suggests Kidwell, a surprising resurgence in recent years of manual and craft work. Noting the wide array of outlets that now market hand-made goods and the array of popular books which advocate making as a basis for activism or personal improvement, this book seeks to understand how the micro-politics of craft work might offer insights for a broader theology of work. Why does it matter that we do work which is meaningful, excellent and beautiful? Through a close reading of Christian scripture, The Theology of Craft and the Craft of Work examines the theology and ethics of work in light of original biblical exegesis. Kidwell presents a detailed exegetical study of temple construction accounts in the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament. Illuminating a theological account of craft and employing the ancient vision of good work which is preserved in these biblical texts, Kidwell critically interrogates modern forms of industrial manufacture. This includes a variety of contemporary work problems, particularly the instrumentalisation and exploitation of the non-human material world and the dehumanisation of workers. Primary themes taken up in the book include agency, aesthetics, sociality, skill and the material culture of work, culminating with the conclusion that the church or new temple is both the product and the site of moral work. Arguing that Christian worship provides a moral context for work, this book also examines early Christian practices to suggest a theological reconceptualisation of work. The Friend, 1864 Craddock on the Craft of Preaching Fred B Craddock, 2011-05-31 No one has had more impact and influence on the craft of preaching in the last several decades than Fred Craddock. After his retirement from a distinguished teaching career, he became free to share his wisdom with a wider audience without the burdens of academic responsibilities. The lectures and workshops show an ever-expanding scholarship beyond that of his published books. This book has gathered the best of the best of these lectures, workshops and offers them to preachers and students of preaching for critical reflection and increased effectiveness. The Cyclopædia, Or,
