

Anatomy of a Strong Grant Proposal

A grant proposal is a formal request for funding, submitted to a government agency, foundation, or other funding organization. It outlines a specific project or program you plan to implement, explains why it's important, and shows how the funds will be used. The goal is to convince the funder that your project is worthwhile, feasible, and aligned with their mission.

I-I

Title Page

Clear, descriptive title outlining the project focus, location, and strategy, and the organization's name, contact information, project title, submission date, and the name of the funder.

Cover Letter

A brief letter that introduces your organization, summarizes the project's goals, and expresses appreciation for the funder's support and consideration.

Executive Summary / Abstract

A brief summary of the problem, goals, approach, expected results and qualifications.

Statement of Need / Problem Statement

Data-backed explanation of the specific issue the project will address, including root causes and urgency.

Project Objectives and Goals

Clear definition of the desired outcomes and the specific, measurable steps to achieve them.
