Anchors Aweigh Voyage To What I Chose To Become:

Anchors Aweigh Albert Schriber, 2014-12-16 In 1968 Joseph is concerned he will be selected in the draft lottery and sent to Army boot camp like his brother in law He left home at the early age of fifteen years old to escape a troubled family life drug addicted mother and an abusive alcoholic step father Before his break away Joseph and his mother lived for several years moving to different locations for safety Joseph s living conditions contributed to his dislike of learning thereby he dropped out of high school and decided to join the Navy to make a better life for himself during the Vietnam Era His first experiences in boot camp and training are unpleasant reminders of his abusive past but later during this decade of adventures in the Navy Joseph becomes aware that his journey will be filled with new discoveries and loaded with life choices He learns from many positive male role models during his travels but John McCain remains his favorite He shares a brief romance with an old friend in Barcelona Spain before he returns to the United States after three long cruises on the USS John F Kennedy What life lessons will Joseph discover Will he make the right decisions Nearing the end of his enlistment Joseph decides to leave Jacksonville Florida and the United States Navy with tremendously more than he started with a decade ago Married a college graduate two daughters and almost a lifetime of choices and education packed into his naval career Joseph will take his family and experience move back to New Orleans begin his new civilian life Joseph still has memories of his painful early years and even has new sorrows from this Navy adventure but he has a reasonably optimistic view of his future Many of Joseph s friends and others encouraged him not to leave military service but he knows the time has come to move on to his many more adventures ahead The Extraordinary Journey of Harry Forth Bruce K.

Byers, 2014-11-26 January 1950 A small boy his brother and his father abandon their car in a blizzard near Albuquerque New Mexico Evening approaches and he fears being left behind As they push on towards a distant highway they hear a vehicle behind them It stops and the driver offers a lift They climb in and he returns them to the motel where his mother anxiously awaits them The experience leaves a deep impression on the boy that stays with him into old age January 1960 Now a junior in high school the young man struggles to fit in He s attracted to several girls but is too shy to ask them out Instead he concentrates on his after school jobs His church and membership in Explorer Scouts remind him of obligations when he really wants to enjoy greater independence He reaches a critical turning point when his French language teacher persuades him to apply for a summer student exchange program Still struggling to define his identity he applies and hopes to be accepted After failing a major French exam he doubts his chances His teacher offers him a make up exam but first he must write an essay about the exchange program and why he would like to live with a host family in another country He meets this challenge and is accepted but not in France An exchange of letters with the son of a host family in Germany heightens his desire to escape his hum drum suburban life and set out on a great adventure Using his own money he buys a ticket on a transcontinental bus and heads for Montreal to board a ship for Europe Along the way he meets several interesting passengers He embarks with hundreds of other young Americans from across the country on a ten day Atlantic crossing The young man soon realizes that he is on a much grander voyage to see a more interesting world than he had ever imagined in his home town Reaching port in Holland he and the others board trains for destinations across Europe He anticipates that the summer will be a turning point in his life
