The Underminers: A Scrutiny of America's Foes Pasquale De Marco, 2025-04-05 In a time of division and uncertainty America stands at a crossroads This book takes a hard look at the forces that are undermining our democracy from political corruption and corporate greed to media manipulation and educational failures With clear eyed analysis and unwavering honesty this book exposes the individuals and institutions that are putting their own interests ahead of the well being of the nation It delves into the political arena where demagogues and special interests have hijacked the system leaving ordinary citizens feeling disenfranchised and unheard It examines the corporate world where profit driven corporations have externalized costs onto society and workers leading to environmental degradation labor exploitation and economic inequality The book also scrutinizes the media which has too often become a mouthpiece for propaganda and misinformation rather than a source of truth and accountability And it takes a critical look at the education system which has failed to prepare our children for the challenges of the 21st century leaving them ill equipped to compete in a global economy This book is more than just a critique of the current state of affairs it is a call to action It challenges readers to hold those in power accountable to demand transparency and integrity from our leaders and to work towards a more just and equitable society It is a call to reclaim the American dream for all not just the privileged few With its incisive analysis and passionate call for change this book is essential reading for anyone who cares about the future of America It is a wake up call a call to arms and a roadmap for a better future If you like this book write a review

The Rise of Transmedia Texts Benjamin W.L. Derhy Kurtz, Mélanie Bourdaa, 2016-08-25 This volume builds on previous notions of transmedia practices to develop the concept of transtexts in order to account for both the industrial and user generated contributions to the cross media expansion of a story universe On the one hand exists industrial transmedia texts produced by supposedly authoritative authors or entities and directed to active audiences in the aim of fostering engagement On the other hand are fan produced transmedia texts primarily intended for fellow members of the fan communities with the Internet allowing for connections and collaboration between fans Through both case studies and more general analyses of audience participation and reception employing the artistic marketing textual industrial cultural social geographical technological historical financial and legal perspectives this multidisciplinary collection aims to expand our understanding of both transmedia storytelling and fan produced transmedia texts
