Respond to each question in complete sentences. Each question is designed to make you think more deeply about the story. Therefore, you will engage in something called higher-order thinking. This is a critical skill one must develop to become a more proficient reader of complex literary pieces appropriate for high school and college.

1. In the exposition, it is implied that Rainsford has a limited world view that demonstrates a lack of critical thinking. Locate textual evidence in support of this claim, and write it below.

2. In the exposition, it becomes clear that Rainsford shows disregard for potential threats. Locate textual evidence in support of this claim, and write it below.

3. At one point before Rainsford realizes Zaroff's intentions, he hears anguished screams he cannot identify. What assumption does Rainsford make upon hearing these sounds? Does this assumption make him feel better or worse?
