Anne Frank Unbound Barbara Kishenblatt-Gimblett,Jeffrey Shandler,2018-11-01 A brilliantly conceived and long overdue opening up or deconstruction of the Anne Frank story James Clifford Professor Emeritus History of Consciousness Department University of California As millions of people around the world who have read her diary attest Anne Frank the most familiar victim of the Holocaust has a remarkable place in contemporary memory Anne Frank Unbound looks beyond this young girl's words at the numerous ways people have engaged her life and writing. Apart from officially sanctioned works and organizations, there exists a prodigious amount of cultural production which encompasses literature, art, music, film, television, blogs, pedagogy, scholarship, religious ritual, and comedy. Created by both artists and amateurs, these responses to Anne Frank range from veneration to irreverence. Although at times they challenge conventional perceptions of her significance, these works testify to the power of Anne Frank the writer and Anne Frank the cultural phenomenon as people worldwide forge their own connections with the diary and its author. This collection of brilliant essays offers fascinating and unexpected insights into the significance of Anne Frank's iconic Holocaust era diary from many disciplinary perspectives in the arts and humanities. Jan T. Gross, the Norman B. Tomlinson Professor of War and Society, Princeton University. This volume is a major contribution to scholarship regarding Anne Frank's diary and its cultural influence. Highly recommended. Choice Engrossing. The overall aim is to provide a greater understanding of the general and particular engagement with Anne Frank as a person, a symbol, an icon, an inspiration, and perhaps most polarizing, as one victim, not the victim of the Nazi Holocaust. Broadside. Theatre and Learning Art Babayants, Heather Fitzimmons Frey, 2015-09-04. As early as Plato, theorists acknowledged the power of theatre as a way of teaching young minds. Similarly, starting with Plato, philosophers occasionally adopted an anti-theatrical stance, worried by the dangers theatre posed to society. The relationships between learning and theatre have never been seen as straightforward, obvious, or without contradictions. This volume investigates the complexity of the intersection of theatre and learning, addressing both the theoretical and practical aspects of it. In three sections: Reflecting, Risking, and Re-imagining, theatre researchers, education scholars, theatre practitioners consider the tensions, frictions, and failures that make learning through theatre in theatre and about theatre interesting, engaging, and challenging. Loosely based on the proceedings from the 20th Festival of Original Theatre (F.O.O.T.) which took place in February 2012 at the University of Toronto, this book contains academic articles and interviews, as well as position reflection and provocation papers from both established researchers in the field of Applied Theatre, such as Professor Helen Nicholson and Professor Kathleen Gallagher, as well as experienced and emergent scholars in Education, Theatre, Dance, and Performance Studies. It also introduces the unorthodox work of the pre-eminent Swedish director and inventor of Babydrama, Suzanne Osten, to the academic audience. Theatre and Learning will be interesting to a wide range of audiences, such as theatre artists and students, theatre researchers and educators, and will be particularly useful for those teaching Theatre Theory and Practice, including Applied Theatre in higher education. Anne Frank in the World Carol Ann Rittner, 2016-06-16. Scholars, clergy, teachers, and writers present stimulating essays on the theme that Anne Frank's Diary movingly symbolizes the triumph of childhood innocence over totalitarian brutality. This may be of value for classes and study groups with interests in religion and religious ethics, the Holocaust, ethnic cleansing, discrimination, the role of the individual in society, and the daunting moral dilemmas posed by emerging nationalisms all over the world. English Handbook and Study Guide Beryl Lutrin, Marcelle
