Anatomy Of A Great Deception Trailer:

The Great Deception Christopher Booker, Richard North, 2021-10-19 Since its publication in 2003 The Great Deception has taken on the role of the Eurosceptics bible with the third edition helping to fuel the debate during the 2016 EU Referendum This fourth edition celebrates the moment when the UK breaks away from the European Union having been extensively re edited to incorporate newly available archive material and updated to include the tumultuous events of recent years The Great Deception therefore tells for the first time the inside story of the most audacious political project of modern times from its intellectual beginnings in the 1920s when the blueprint for the European Union was first conceived by a British civil servant right up to the point when the UK resumes its path as an independent sovereign nation after 47 years of membership of the European project in its various guises Drawing on a wealth of new evidence and existing sources scarcely an episode of the story does not emerge in startling new light from the real reasons why de Gaulle kept Britain out in the 1960s to the fall of Mrs Thatcher and the build up to the referendum campaign which had its roots in the Maastricht Treaty The book chillingly shows how Britain's politicians were consistently outplayed in a game the rules of which they never understood It ends by evaluating the post referendum negotiations and asking whether this is the end of an episode or just a new beginning Publisher's description

Misleading Movie Trailers Zuri Deepwater, AI, 2025-03-29 Misleading Movie Trailers explores the world of deceptive film marketing revealing how trailers often misrepresent a movie's true content tone and genre This practice driven by market pressures and creative liberties can erode audience trust and negatively impact a film's success The book argues that these misleading tactics are a systemic issue within the film industry not just isolated incidents For instance trailers sometimes selectively showcase scenes or use suggestive editing to create a false impression which exploits consumer behavior The book progresses through a structured analysis beginning with a theoretical framework that defines misleading trailers and examines the historical evolution of movie marketing It then presents case studies of specific films and their trailers dissecting instances of misrepresentation and analyzing the marketing strategies employed A key finding is that while crafting an appealing trailer is essential crossing ethical boundaries can lead to negative word of mouth highlighting the importance of advertising ethics Finally the book synthesizes these findings to explore the psychological principles behind deceptive marketing and the role of online communities in influencing audience perception Ultimately Misleading Movie Trailers aims to foster transparency in the film industry By analyzing the persuasive techniques used in trailers the book offers insights for filmmakers marketers and consumers encouraging critical thinking and informed decision making It also benefits business management by exploring the effect of misleading ads in general and its effect on future customer relationships

The Land Reform Deception Alexander Charles Laurie, 2016 The Land Reform Deception looks at a particularly contentious period in Zimbabwe's recent history from 2000-2008 when the government seized commercial farms using illegal and violent methods against a largely unarmed population of farmers and farm workers

Robert Mugabe's government began the seizures on a small targeted scale in an effort to suppress political opposition groups but they soon escalated into an out of control frenzy targeting all farms in the country. The state claimed that the seizures occurred in response to a public cry for land redistribution and to rectify colonial era injustices and were part of a structured land reallocation program. Yet land was often distributed ad hoc to those with little or no farming experience. As a result agricultural output contracted and inflation and unemployment rose dramatically in what became a social and economic disaster for the country. In The Land Reform Deception Charles Laurie asks why the state would target its own agricultural industry using such violent methods and risk such dire consequences. He also seeks to uncover the major actors and their motivations and strategies. Laurie argues that the seizure of the most valuable farms was largely carried out by politically influential individuals for financial and political gain rather than to address historical injustices. In fact he finds that the scale on which the farm invasions were carried out and the violent methods used were never part of a planned government land policy. Indeed Laurie shows that Mugabe initially opposed the seizures knowing that they would wreck the economy only to later support them in order to appease his supporters and retain political power. Incorporating unprecedented empirical evidence gathered from in depth interviews with senior politicians, members of the secretive Central Intelligence Organization, the military and police along with farmers and farm workers who were targeted during the invasions, The Land Reform Deception strips away official explanations and delves into the political and economic drivers that triggered the seizure of commercial farms in Zimbabwe. Cars & Parts, 1998-07

Coming Attractions Lisa Kernan, 2009-07-21

Movie trailers those previews of coming attractions before the start of a feature film are routinely praised and reviled by moviegoers and film critics alike. They give away too much of the movie. They're better than the films. They only show the spectacular parts. They lie. They're the best part of going to the movies. But whether you love them or hate them trailers always serve their purpose of offering free samples of a film to influence moviegoing decision making. Indeed with their inclusion on videotapes, DVDs and on the Internet trailers are more widely seen and influential now than at any time in their history. Starting from the premise that movie trailers can be considered a film genre, this pioneering book explores the genre's conventions and offers a primer for reading the rhetoric of movie trailers. Lisa Kernan identifies three principal rhetorical strategies that structure trailers: appeals to audience interest in film genres, stories and/or stars. She also analyzes the trailers for twenty-seven popular Hollywood films from the classical, transitional and contemporary eras, exploring what the rhetorical appeals within these trailers reveal about Hollywood's changing conceptions of the moviegoing audience. Kernan argues that movie trailers constitute a long standing hybrid of advertising and cinema and as such are precursors to today's heavily commercialized cultural forms in which art and marketing become increasingly indistinguishable. Fool's Gold? L. Sargisson, 2012-07-17

Starboard? Guy G. Lemieux, 2011-03-10 At one point after the boom vang broke loose the boom and the sail shifted to a higher position I didn't like the loss of control this caused The boat was swinging from 0 to 20 degrees in jerky motions lifting and heeling The boom vang had been ripped out of its housing I had an idea what to do and told Roxanne what I had in mind At a certain moment with her help holding up the boom vang in a certain way I would let go of the rudder and lunge forward to grab the creature from her hand and plunge its little head into the second available hole a slot just under the boom This she understood but all the while I was under great stress anxious for my daughter's life and mine The wind was quite strong and I didn't want the boat to flip over not there away from any available help We were two miles from shore in any direction I checked the waves and wind and then turned the boat into the wind On my signal to Roxanne I lurched forward and grabbed the beastly creature and shakily shoved its head in the hole I then turned the boat back to windward and pulled in on the sheet that pulled the boom back to its correct position Everything was fine again In a plastic bag hanging from the boom near the mast were my cigarettes and a lighter That's where Roxanne was also handy She passed me a cigarette and my lighter and I lit it and took a big drag Ah The rest of the day went beautifully In the same bag we had a nice light lunch gourmet style a couple of baloney sandwiches and two cans of pop FTC News Summary, 1977 Code of Federal Regulations
