Subcommittee on Livestock and Grains, 1969 Stories, Storytellers, and Storytelling Tom Vine, Sarah Richards, 2022-12-15 This book advances social scientific interest in a field long dominated by the humanities stories and storytelling Stories are a whole lot more than entertainment oral narratives novels films and immersive video games all form part of the sociocultural discourses which we are enmeshed in and use to co construct our beliefs about the world around us Young children use them to learn about the world beyond their immediate sensory experience and even in an era of interactive electronic media the bedtime story remains a cherished part of most children's daily routine Storytelling is thus the first abstract formal learning method we encounter as human beings It is also probably transcultural perhaps even an immanent part of the human condition Narratives are at heart sequences of events and presuppose and reinforce particular cause and effect relationships Inevitably they also construct unconscious biases prejudices and discriminatory attitudes Storying a term we use in this book to encompass stories storytellers and storytelling is complex and this book seeks to make sense of it
