Computers Today & Tomorrow □ 8 Manjeet Jauhar, Dorothy Fanthome, COMPUTERS TODAY TOMORROW series consists of eight computer science textbooks for classes 1-8. This series is created to help students master the use of various kinds of software and IT tools. The books have been designed to keep pace with the latest technologies and the interests of the 21st century learners. The series is based on Windows 7 and MS Office 2007 and adopts an interactive approach to teach various concepts related to Computer Science. The books for classes 1-5 are introductory. They introduce students to the basic features of Windows 7 and MS Office 2007 starting with the history of computers, what are the basic parts of the computer, how to use Tux Paint, WordPad, MS Paint, how to program in LOGO and also give an introduction to the Internet. However, the books for classes 6-8 are for senior students and take a deep dive into the advanced features of Windows 7 and MS Office 2007 including how to do programming in QBasic, HTML and Visual Basic. Students learn to create animations using Flash and Photoshop and how to communicate using the Internet. The ebook version does not contain CD. CIM Coursebook

Critical Thinking in Clinical Practice Eileen Gambrill, 2012-04-26. Praise for Critical Thinking in Clinical Practice Third Edition. Eileen Gambrill is unparalleled in her ability to describe common flaws and biases in clinical decision making. The result in this revised edition is a steadfast call for change that also acknowledges the demands of practice. A must read for clinicians and researchers alike. Elizabeth K. Anthony, PhD, Assistant Professor, School of Social Work, Arizona State University. This Third Edition builds upon the impressive strengths of Gambrill's prior treatments of the topic to support the notion that critical thinking is a teachable skill and one essential for contemporary practice in the human services. This book should be the default authority on the topic of critical thinking for human service professionals and would be an excellent textbook Bruce A Thyer PhD LCSW Professor and former Dean Florida State University College of Social Work I was skeptical about how Critical Thinking in Clinical Practice could be improved but Eileen Gambrill has succeeded Her articulation of critical thinking skills for clinical decisions ultimately will benefit the people we serve Joanne Yaffe PhD ACSW Associate Professor of Social Work and Adjunct Associate Professor of Psychiatry University of Utah A balanced and illustrative guide to incorporating critical thinking values knowledge and skills into clinical education and practice Now in a third edition Critical Thinking in Clinical Practice is written for helping professionals who want to think more clearly about the decisions they make and the context in which they make them It is a practical volume for clinicians who would like to expand their knowledge of common pitfalls and fallacies in clinical reasoning As in earlier editions this Third Edition draws on research related to problem solving and decision making illustrating the relevance of research findings to everyday clinical practice and policy Revised throughout the new edition includes discussion of The influence of pharmaceutical companies on the helping professions including disease mongering the creation of bogus risks problems and needless worries Different kinds of propaganda in the helping professions that compromise informed consent Additional coverage of classification pathology reliance on authority and hazards in data collection The development of decision aids of value to both professionals and clients The relative contribution of specific interventions compared to nonspecific factors to positive outcome Factors related to decision making in multidisciplinary teams New developments regarding intuitive and analytic reasoning The pragmatic theory of fallacies Designed to enhance the quality of services offered to clients Critical Thinking in Clinical Practice Third Edition is filled with insightful examples useful lists websites and guidelines presenting an essential resource for all helping professionals and students in the helping professions
