Education International Perspectives is the first book to systematically examine elite education in different parts of the world. Authors provide a historical analysis of the emergence of national elite education systems and consider how recent policy and economic developments are changing the configuration of elite trajectories and the social groups benefiting from these. Through country level case studies this book offers readers an in depth account of elite education systems in the Anglophone world in Europe and in the emerging financial centres of Africa Asia and Latin America. A series of commentaries highlight commonalities and differences between elite education systems and offer insights into broader theoretical issues with which educationalists researchers and policy makers are engaging. With authors including Stephen J Ball Donald Broady Rub n Gaztambide Fern ndez Heinz Hermann Kr ger Maria Alice Nogueira Julia Resnik and Agn s van Zanten the book offers a benchmark perspective on issues frequently glossed over in comparative education including the processes by which powerful groups retain privilege and elite status in rapidly changing societies. Elite Education International Perspectives will appeal to policy makers and academics in the fields of education and sociology. Simultaneously it will be of special relevance to post graduates enrolled on courses in the sociology of education education policy and education and international development.

Feminist Futures Kum-Kum Bhavnani, John Foran, Priya A. Kurian, Debashish Munshi, 2016-10-15. Straddling disciplines and continents Feminist Futures interweaves scholarship and social activism to explore the evolving position of women in the South. Working at the intersection of cultural studies critical development studies and feminist theory the book's contributors articulate a radical and innovative framework for understanding the linkages between women culture and development applying it to issues ranging from sexuality and the gendered body to the environment technology and the cultural politics of representation. This revised and updated edition brings together leading academics as well as a new generation of activists and scholars to provide a fresh perspective on the ways in which women in the South are transforming our understanding of development Captivating Technology Ruha Benjamin,2019-06-07 The contributors to Captivating Technology examine how carceral technologies such as electronic ankle monitors and predictive policing algorithms are being deployed to classify and coerce specific populations and whether these innovations can be appropriated and reimagined for more liberatory ends

Radical Left Parties in Government Yiannos Katsourides,2016-09-22 This book provides a comparative analysis of how two radical left parties achieved government participation and their subsequent political experiences In the face of the most severe and most prolonged crisis in the history of capitalism it would be expected for radical left parties to seize the opportunity to promote their political agenda Although reality has often confounded prognosis two particular radical left parties the Greek SYRIZA and the Cypriot AKEL were elected to the highest government office The author uses these two examples to engage with the broader question of what to expect when left wing radicals achieve governance This question is now of particular importance given the emergence of radical leftists in other parts of Europe including Corbyn in the UK and Podemos in Spain
