Victorian Vogue Dianne F. Sadoff, 2010 Ranging from cinematic images of Jane Austen's estates to Oscar Wilde's drawing rooms Dianne F Sadoff looks at popular heritage films often featuring Hollywood stars that have been adapted from nineteenth century novels Victorian Vogue argues that heritage films perform different cultural functions at key historical moments in the twentieth century According to Sadoff they are characterized by a double historical consciousness one that is as attentive to the concerns of the time of production as to those of the Victorian period If James Whale's Frankenstein and Tod Browning's Dracula exploited post Depression fear in the 1930s the horror films of the 1950s used the genre to explore homosexual panic 1970s movies elaborated the sexuality only hinted at in the thirties and films of the 1990s indulged the pleasures of consumption Taking a broad view of the relationships among film literature and current events Sadoff contrasts films not merely with their nineteenth century source novels but with crucial historical moments in the twentieth century showing their cultural use in interpreting the present not just the past Accidental Migrations Edward H. Jacobs,2000 Rethinking and adapting the theoretical framework and critical methods of Michael Foucault's archaeology of knowledge and arguments about power relations Edward Jacobs's Accidental Migrations offers a new consideration of the nature of the Gothic Modernism, Romance and the Fin de Siècle Nicholas Daly,2000-02-10 In Modernism Romance and the Fin de Siècle Nicholas Daly explores the popular fiction of the romance revival of the late Victorian and Edwardian years focusing on the work of such authors as Bram Stoker H Rider Haggard and Arthur Conan Doyle Rather than treating these stories as Victorian Gothic Daly locates them as part of a popular modernism Drawing on work in cultural studies this book argues that the vampires mummies and treasure hunts of these adventure narratives provided a form of narrative theory of cultural change at a time when Britain was trying to accommodate the new imperialism the rise of professionalism and the expansion of consumerist culture Daly's wide ranging study argues that the presence of a genre such as romance within modernism should force a questioning of the usual distinction between high and popular culture
