

Reading Standards for Literature K–5

The following standards offer a focus for instruction each year and help ensure that students gain adequate exposure to a range of texts and tasks. Rigor is also infused through the requirement that students read increasingly complex texts through the grades. Students advancing through the grades are expected to meet each year's grade-specific standards and retain or further develop skills and understandings mastered in preceding grades.

	Kindergartners	Grade 1 Students	Grade 2 Students
Key Ideas and Details	- With prompting and support, ask and answer questions about key details in a text. - With prompting and support, retell familiar stories, including key details. - With prompting and support, identify characters, settings, and major events in a story.	- Ask and answer questions about key details in a text. - Retell stories, including key details, and demonstrate understanding of their central message or lesson. - Describe characters, settings, and major events in a story, using key details.	- Ask and answer such questions as who, what, where, when, why, and how to demonstrate understanding of key details in a text. - Recount stories, including fables and folktales from diverse cultures, and determine their central message, lesson, or moral. - Describe how characters in a story respond to major events and challenges.
Craft and Structure	- Ask and answer questions about unknown words in a text. (See grade K Language standards 4–6 for additional expectations.) CA - Recognize common types of texts (e.g., storybooks, poems, fantasy, realistic text). CA - With prompting and support, name the author and illustrator of a story and define the role of each in telling the story.	- Identify words and phrases in stories or poems that suggest feelings or appeal to the senses. (See grade 1 Language standards 4–6 for additional expectations.) CA - Explain major differences between books that tell stories and books that give information, drawing on a wide reading of a range of text types. - Identify who is telling the story at various points in a text.	- Describe how words and phrases (e.g., regular beats, alliteration, rhymes, repeated lines) supply rhythm and meaning in a story, poem, or song. (See grade 2 Language standards 4–6 for additional expectations.) CA - Describe the overall structure of a story, including describing how the beginning introduces the story and the ending concludes the action. - Acknowledge differences in the points of view of characters, including by speaking in a different voice for each character when reading dialogue aloud.
Integration of Knowledge and Ideas	- With prompting and support, describe the relationship between illustrations and the story in which they appear (e.g., what moment in a story an illustration depicts). (Not applicable to literature) - With prompting and support, compare and contrast the adventures and experiences of characters in familiar stories.	- Use illustrations and details in a story to describe its characters, setting, or events. (Not applicable to literature) - Compare and contrast the adventures and experiences of characters in stories.	- Use information gained from the illustrations and words in a print or digital text to demonstrate understanding of its characters, setting, or plot. (Not applicable to literature) - Compare and contrast two or more versions of the same story (e.g., Cinderella stories) by different authors or from different cultures.
