Parlo Singh,Alan R. Sadovnik,Susan F. Semel,2010 For over four decades Basil Bernstein researched the internal organisation and educational context of the school specifically and educational systems generally In particular he was interested in the powerful forms of knowledge transmitted through schooling systems who gained access to these forms of knowledge how they did so and with what consequences His research began by examining the differences between language and communication patterns in the institutions of the home family and of the school and extended to examining the structuring of pedagogic discourse from the level of the state to the classroom This collection brings together chapters by researchers from South Africa Portugal the United Kingdom United States and Australia to build on the theoretical concepts developed by Bernstein to explore issues of access and acquisition to school knowledge In addition contributors explore the strengths and limitations of Bernstein s work for understanding the structuring of educational institutions as well as the potential of the theory for assisting educators to make a difference in the lives of students SJVN Exam PDF-Assistant
