Labor in the Age of Finance Sanford M. Jacoby, 2025-05-27 From award winning economic historian Sanford M Jacoby a fascinating and important study of the labor movement and shareholder capitalism Since the 1970s American unions have shrunk dramatically as has their economic clout Labor in the Age of Finance traces the search for new sources of power showing how unions turned financialization to their advantage Sanford Jacoby catalogs the array of allies and finance based tactics labor deployed to stanch membership losses in the private sector By leveraging pension capital unions restructured corporate governance around issues like executive pay and accountability In Congress they drew on their political influence to press for corporate reforms in the wake of business scandals and the financial crisis The effort restrained imperial CEOs but could not bridge the divide between workers and owners Wages lagged behind investor returns feeding the inequality identified by Occupy Wall Street And labor's slide continued A compelling blend of history economics and politics Labor in the Age of Finance explores the paradox of capital bestowing power to labor in the tumultuous era of Enron Lehman Brothers and Dodd Frank

The Question of Skill in Cross-Border Labour Mobilities Gracia Liu-Farrer, Brenda S.A. Yeoh, Michiel Baas, 2023-03-31 Selecting migrants based on skill has become a widely practised migration policy in many countries around the world Since the late 20th century research on skilled and highly skilled migration has raised important questions about the value and ethics of skill based labour mobility More recent research has begun to question the concept of skill and skill categorisation in both government policy and academic research Taking the view that skills are socially constructed categories and highly malleable concepts in practice this edited volume centres the discussion on the following questions Who are the arbitrators of skill What constitutes skill And how is skill constructed in the migration process and in turn how does skill affect the mobility The empirical studies in this volume show that diverse actors are involved in the process of identifying evaluating and shaping migrant skill The interpretation of migrants skill is frequently distorted by their ascriptive characteristics such as race ethnicity gender and nationality reflecting the influence of colonial legacy global inequality as well as social stratification Finally this edited volume emphasises the complex and frequently reciprocal relationship between skill and mobility This book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of Sociology Human Geography Politics Social Anthropology Economics and Social Work It was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies
