The doll on the left is a male figure with short black hair, wearing glasses, a dark red high-collared jacket with intricate patterns, and black leather-like pants. The doll on the right is a female figure with long black hair adorned with a red flower, wearing a dark, high-collared dress with a long, flowing red skirt. The background is a simple, light-colored wall. The text "DRESS TO IMPRESS" and "GOTHIC ROMANCE" is overlaid in a large, white, serif font with a drop shadow effect.

Madame de Staël's cultural and political agenda at a time when her generous idea of Europe is being challenged on all sides the volume pays close attention to the period's circulation of people, ideas and texts. It proposes to rethink the period comparatively, focusing on various forms of cultural mediation and transfer and on productive tensions, synchronicities and interactions within and across borders. Organized chronologically, its twenty chapters address over five hundred works, proposing a coherent historical narrative without completely erasing individual nations' specificities. By showcasing in particular the place of Britain within continental culture, the volume hopes to reactivate critical examinations of Romanticism from a historicised European perspective. 2004 Novel and Short Story Writer's Market Anne Bowling, Michael Schweer, Vanessa Lyman, 2003.
