Teaching Music Performance in Higher Education Helen Julia Minors, Stefan Östersjö, Gilvano Dalagna, Jorge Salgado Correia, 2024-05-27 Higher Music Performance Education as taught and learned in universities and conservatoires in Europe is undergoing transformation Since the nineteenth century the master apprentice pedagogical model has dominated creating a learning environment that emphasises the development of technical skills rather than critical and creative faculties This book contributes to the renewal of this field by being the first to address the potential of artistic research in developing student centred approaches and greater student autonomy This potential is demonstrated in chapters illustrating artistic research projects that are embedded within higher music education courses across Europe with examples ranging from instrumental tuition and ensemble work to the development of professional employability skills and inclusive practices Bringing together diverse and experienced voices working within Higher Music Education but often also as professional performers this edited collection pairs critical reflection with artistic insight to present new approaches to curricula for teaching interpretation and performance It calls for greater collaboration between Higher Education and professional music institutions to create closer bonds with music industries and thereby improve students career opportunities Teaching Music Performance in Higher Education will appeal to scholars performers teachers but also students whose interests centre on innovative practices in conservatoires and music departments

A Study of New Concepts, Procedures and Achievements in Music Learning as Developed in Selected Music Education Programs Ronald B. Thomas, 1966

Roy's Piano Tunes Part III: Advanced/Professional Roy Dahan , 2021-06 Everyone's reason for playing is different What's yours Roy's Piano Tunes the new series of piano composition books by Roy Dahan provides many reasons to play It includes music sheets for 52 songs spread across three parts Mid Beginner Intermediate and Advanced Professional The series was inspired by Roy's love of the piano and his fond memories as a piano teacher He wanted to create advanced musical pieces for students and players alike that were fun and engaging from the start. Written during the worldwide lockdown, the tunes soon transformed into something more than originally intended. They became an innermost expression of an artist wanting to share a sense of wonder and connection through music with a heart-worn world. Each individual tune was brought to life and developed during late night sittings at the piano. They all began as simple playful improvisations, a key characteristic that will make you want to play them again and again. Whether you're looking for new repertoire or to up your piano playing skills, now it's your turn to try out and enjoy these beautifully crafted piano tunes. What's your reason for playing? Let Roy's Piano Tunes take you there.
