Sport Tourism Heather J. Gibson, 2013-09-13 The study of sport tourism is on the cusp of moving from a descriptive phase of research into an analytical phase Consequently many academics and graduate students are searching for theories upon which to ground their work This book draws upon theories and concepts from sociology and anthropology the socio cultural perspective sport and tourism studies and business studies One of the dangers of a new area of study is that the body of knowledge is built on a range of seemingly unrelated studies By grounding work in a theoretical perspective future work can be linked to and contribute to building a cohesive understanding of various aspects of sport tourism This book is an edited collection written by some of the top scholars working in a particular domain throughout the world providing a compendium of theories and concepts that can be used to frame research on various aspects of sport tourism This volume was previously published as a special issue of the journal Sport in Society

Beyond Cannery Row Carol Lynn McKibben, 2010-10-01 Presenting a nuanced story of women migration community industry and civic life at the turn of the twentieth century Carol Lynn McKibben's Beyond Cannery Row analyzes the processes of migration and settlement of Sicilian fishers from three villages in Western Sicily to Monterey California and sometimes back again McKibben's analysis of gender and gender roles shows that it was the women in this community who had the insight the power and the purpose to respond and even prosper amid changing economic conditions Vividly evoking the immigrants everyday experiences through first person accounts and detailed description McKibben demonstrates that the cannery work done by Sicilian immigrant women was crucial in terms of the identity formation and community development These changes allowed their families to survive the challenges of political conflicts over citizenship in World War II and intermarriage with outsiders throughout the migration experience The women formed voluntary associations and celebrated festas that effectively linked them with each other and with their home villages in Sicily Continuous migration created a strong sense of transnationalism among Sicilians in Monterey which has enabled them to continue as a viable ethnic community today
