Alexander W. Wiseman

2014 Life Orientation Grade 1final Exam:

Research on Emotion and Learning: Contributions from Latin America Camilo Hurtado-Parrado, Carlos Gantiva, Leonardo A. Ortega, Alexander Gómez-A, Lucas Cuenya, Javier Leonardo Rico, 2020-05-11 Latin America has increased its share of world scientific publications by nearly twofold during the last two decades approximately from 2 to 4% Despite this positive trend the scholarly impact of scientific research produced in the region measured in terms of citation rate remains low Two interrelated factors that contribute to this situation is that most research groups tend to work in isolation or in local sporadic collaboration and results are often published in journals that are not indexed in major citation databases e g SCOPUS or Web of Science Ultimately part of Latin American high quality research seems to remain hidden from the rest of the world Over the last decades an important number of Latin American scientists have developed fruitful research agendas on questions on learning and emotion focusing on basic and or translational research with humans and other animal models and implementing diverse methodologies Notwithstanding the important contributions of these research programs Latin American research on emotion and learning has followed the overall trend of other research fields throughout the region namely remaining partially hidden from the large scientific community of the world This Research Topic aimed to engage researchers from Latin America to share their empirical and conceptual work on learning and emotion Ultimately this effort was expected to strengthen and integrate our regional community of experts enhance global networking and establish new challenges and developments for future investigation

Social Background and the Demographic Life Course: Cross-National Comparisons Aart C. Liefbroer, Mioara Zoutewelle-Terovan, 2021-04-21 This open access book examines how childhood social disadvantage influences young adult demographic decision making and later life economic and well being outcomes This book in particular focuses on testing whether the consequences of childhood social disadvantage for adult outcomes differ across societies and whether these differences are shaped by the context of opportunities that societies offer to diminish the adverse impact of economic and social deprivation The book integrates a longitudinal approach and provides new insights in how the experience of childhood disadvantage e g low parental socio economic status family disruption influences demographic decisions in adulthood e g the timing of family events such as cohabitation marriage or parenthood the risk of divorce or having a child outside a partner relationship the exposure to later life loneliness poor health and economic adversity Moreover using a cross national comparative perspective it investigates whether the relationships of interest differ across nations and tests the context of opportunities hypothesis arguing that the links between childhood disadvantage and adult outcomes are weakened in societal contexts offering good opportunities for people to escape situations of deprivation To do so the book analyzes national contexts based on economic prosperity family values and norms and welfare state arrangements

New Perspectives on Material Mediation in Language Learner Pedagogy Darren K. LaScotte, Corinne S. Mathieu, Samuel S. David, 2022-05-31 This volume distinguishes itself from existing research on materials design development and evaluation and focuses on material mediation in actual processes of teaching and learning a subject that has been under researched in the field of applied linguistics and second language education This edited volume includes diverse perspectives on the roles that materials play in language learner pedagogy Moving beyond the field of English language teaching readers will find novel contributions offering a diversity of language teaching contexts learner populations and topics in the theory and or practice of second and foreign language teaching Chapters explore the ways in which affordances and constraints of classroom materials impact teachers and learners while at the same time they bring their own evolving resources identities beliefs and expertise to modify and adapt the materials to better suit their local language teaching and learning environments As such this text is ideal for use as supplemental reading in a wide variety of applied linguistics second foreign language education TESOL and instructional course design courses

Teaching and Learning in a Digital World Michael E. Auer,David Guralnick,Istvan Simonics,2017-12-26 This book gathers the Proceedings of the 20th International Conference on Interactive Collaborative Learning ICL2017 held in Budapest Hungary on 27 29 September 2017 The authors are currently witnessing a significant transformation in the development of education The impact of globalisation on all areas of human life the exponential acceleration of technological developments and global markets and the need for flexibility and agility are essential and challenging elements of this process that have to be tackled in general but especially in engineering education To face these current real world challenges higher education has to find innovative ways to quickly respond to them Since its inception in 1998 this conference has been devoted to new approaches in learning with a focus on collaborative learning Today the ICL conferences offer a forum for exchange concerning relevant trends and research results and for sharing practical experience gained while developing and testing elements of new technologies and pedagogies in the learning context

Mixed Messages Stefanie Mollborn,2017 Sex is bad Unprotected sex is a problem Having a baby would be a disaster Abortion is a sin Teenagers in the United States hear conflicting messages about sex from everyone around them How do teens understand these messages In Mixed Messages Stefanie Mollborn examines how social norms and social control work through in depth interviews with college students and teen mothers and fathers revealing the tough conversations teenagers just can't have with adults Delving into teenagers complicated social worlds Mollborn argues that by creating informal social sanctions like gossip and exclusion and formal communication such as sex education families peers schools and communities strategize to gain control over teens behaviors However while teens strategize to keep control they resist the constraints of the norms revealing the variety of outcomes that occur beyond compliance or deviance By showing that the norms existing today around teen sex are ineffective failing to regulate sexual behavior and instead punishing teens that violate them Mollborn calls for a more thoughtful and consistent dialogue between teens and adults emphasizing messages that will lead to more positive health outcomes
