Challenges of European External Energy Governance with Emerging Powers Michèle Knodt, Nadine Piefer, 2016-03-03 In a multipolar world with growing demand for energy not least by Emerging Powers such as Brazil India China or South Africa BICS questions of EU external energy governance would at first hand appear to be a high priority Yet reality tells a different story the EU's geographical focus remains on adjacent countries in the European neighbourhood and on issues related to energy security. Despite being Strategic Partners and engaging in energy dialogues it seems that the EU is lacking strategic vision and is not perceived as a major actor in energy cooperation with the BICS. Thus political momentum for energy cooperation and joint governance of scarce resources is vanishing. Resulting from three years of international interdisciplinary research cooperation among academics and practitioners in Europe and the BICS countries within a project funded by the Volkswagen Foundation this volume addresses one of the greatest global challenges. Specific focus lies on the bilateral energy dialogues and Strategic Partnerships between the EU and Emerging Powers regarding bilateral inter and transnational energy cooperation. Furthermore the analysis provides policy recommendations in order to tap the full potential of energy cooperation between the EU and Brazil India China and South Africa.

Singapore Jason Lim, Terence Lee, 2016-05-26 On 9 August 2015 Singapore celebrated its 50th year of national independence a milestone for the nation as it has overcome major economic social cultural and political challenges in a short period of time. Whilst this was a celebratory event to acknowledge the role of the People's Action Party (PAP) government it was also marked by national remembrance as founding Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew died in March 2015. This book critically reflects on Singapore's 50 years of independence. Contributors interrogate a selected range of topics on Singapore's history culture and society including the constitution education religion and race and thereby facilitate a better understanding of its shared national past. Central to this book is an examination of how Singaporeans have learnt to adapt and change through PAP government policies since independence in 1965. All chapters begin their histories from that point in time and each contribution focuses either on an area that has been neglected in Singapore's modern history or offer new perspectives on the past. Using a multi disciplinary approach it presents an independent and critical take on Singapore's post 1965 history. A valuable assessment to students and researchers alike.
