Decolonising Geography? Disciplinary Histories and the End of the British Empire in Africa, 1948-1998 Ruth Craggs, Hannah Neate, 2023-10-16
DECOLONISING GEOGRAPHY This book presents an extraordinarily sensitive account of geography's histories in five African countries subjected to British colonial rule Craggs and Neate draw together political and imaginative processes of decolonisation through an innovative biographical approach that humanizes and enlivens the story of our academic discipline It will be an invaluable resource for those seeking a deeper understanding of decolonisation its recent trajectories and far reaching implications on the African continent Shari Daya Affiliate Associate Professor in Environmental and Geographical Science University of Cape Town By placing the experiences ideas and practices of African geographers in the center of their analyses Craggs and Neate provide an unprecedented account of historical and contemporary decolonizing struggles within Geography and the academy This book should be required reading for all those looking to decolonize the discipline and dislodge it from its Global North histories institutions and ideologies Mona Domosh Professor of Geography The Joan P and Edward J Foley Jr 1933 Professor Dartmouth College This meticulous work explores how colonialism decolonization and postcolonialism shaped African geography and geographers It sheds light on efforts to Africanize the discipline a process which I was both witness to and a participant in Stanley Okafor Professor of Geography Retired University of Ibadan How did a generation of academic geographers engage with constitutional decolonisation during the end of the British empire in Africa In Decolonising Geography Disciplinary Histories and the End of the British Empire in Africa 1948 1998 Ruth Craggs and Hannah Neate explore how the teaching research administration and activism of geographers in Africa shaped the discipline and the post colonial geopolitics of the continent The authors follow the professional lives of individual geographers to provide fresh insights into decolonisation in the former British Empire in Africa drawing from extensive archival research and more than 40 oral history interviews with geographers in Ghana Nigeria South Africa Tanzania and the

UK Decolonising Geography is a must read for any reader in the UK and Africa with an interest in the relationships between geography and decolonisation Rockhound: A Geography of Collecting Michael Gordon, 2017-05-15 In this book Rockhound A Geography of Collecting you will be shown Ontario's incredible history of mineral extraction and as you will see rockhounds follow in the signature that every industry left The full Rockhound series tells you how and where to find crystals minerals gold diamonds and all manner of rock and mineral treasure for the collector this book is an absolute gem and an essential guide to Ontario geology as it relates to mineral collecting The Problem of Social Inequality Scott G. McNall, 2015-12-07 Within and among nations rising levels of social inequality threaten our collective future Currently upwards of 80% of people's life chances are determined by factors over which they have absolutely no control Social inequality threatens the democratic project because it destroys the trust on which governments depend and it gives rise to corrupt political and economic institutions How can we get out of the traps we have created for ourselves We need to reboot capitalism Drawing on diverse examples from a range of countries McNall explains the social economic and ecological traps we have set for ourselves and develops a set of rules of resilience that are necessary conditions for the creation and maintenance of democratic societies and a set of rules essential for creating a sustainable future Exclusion and Inclusion in International Migration: Power, Resistance and Identity Armağan Teke Lloyd, 2019-04-30 People on the move face new barriers in a globalizing world Some of these barriers are related with the rise of an increasingly security oriented approach towards international migrants Notwithstanding the forces of globalization states have maintained their monopoly power over whom to admit and whom to deny within their borders In other words they remain the sovereign authority regulating the entry and exit of people However in recent years a number of states have singled out international immigration as the greatest political and social threat to their cultural and national security The securitization of immigration is founded upon the premise that the international movement of people represents an exceptional risk for the survival of the nation and this is often associated with terrorism instability and criminality The securitization of immigration is also based on the idea that the traditional authority vested in states to regulate immigration is somehow insufficient and needs to be enhanced These assumptions correspond with a real policy shift in some countries such as the United States where the government is planning to spend approximately 23 Billion Dollars on border security and immigration enforcement in 2019 alone This edited volume is an exploration of the global landscapes inhabited by refugees and labour migrants although the focus is largely on the former Despite the fact that most of the empirical studies are drawn from within Europe the book also includes research on Nepal Australia the Middle East and Japan in order to reveal the truly global dimensions of migration and the regimes governing this Content INTRODUCTION by Arma an Teke Lloyd PART A Ideology and Governance of Migration CHAPTER 1 Coming to Terms with Liberal Democracy by the Populist Radical Right Parties of Western Europe Evidence from European Parliament Speeches over Minorities and Migration by Caner Tekin CHAPTER 2 A Forest with many
