Exclusion and Inclusion in International Migration: Power, Resistance and Identity Armağan Teke Lloyd, 2019-04-30. People on the move face new barriers in a globalizing world. Some of these barriers are related with the rise of an increasingly security oriented approach towards international migrants. Notwithstanding the forces of globalization, states have maintained their monopoly power over whom to admit and whom to deny within their borders. In other words, they remain the sovereign authority regulating the entry and exit of people. However, in recent years, a number of states have singled out international immigration as the greatest political and social threat to their cultural and national security. The securitization of immigration is founded upon the premise that the international movement of people represents an exceptional risk for the survival of the nation and this is often associated with terrorism, instability and criminality. The securitization of immigration is also based on the idea that the traditional authority vested in states to regulate immigration is somehow insufficient and needs to be enhanced. These assumptions correspond with a real policy shift in some countries such as the United States where the government is planning to spend approximately 23 Billion Dollars on border security and immigration enforcement in 2019 alone. This edited volume is an exploration of the global landscapes inhabited by refugees and labour migrants, although the focus is largely on the former. Despite the fact that most of the empirical studies are drawn from within Europe, the book also includes research on Nepal Australia the Middle East and Japan in order to reveal the truly global dimensions of migration and the regimes governing this Content INTRODUCTION by Arma an Teke Lloyd PART A Ideology and Governance of Migration CHAPTER 1 Coming to Terms with Liberal Democracy by the Populist Radical Right Parties of Western Europe Evidence from European Parliament Speeches over Minorities and Migration by Caner Tekin CHAPTER 2 A Forest with many trees Mapping migration governance and the dispersion of authority in Europe by Lisa Marie Borrelli Rebecca Mavin and Giorgia Trasciani CHAPTER 3 Policing Migrants in Transit and Upon Arrival The Bordering Tactic of Integration in Austria and Germany by Olivia Johnson PART B Regulations Suspension of Human Rights CHAPTER 4 Borders Exception and Sovereignty Australia s Migration Policies as Instruments of Suspension of Human Rights and International Obligations by Ana Carolina Macedo Abreu CHAPTER 5 Power and Sandwicheed Sovereignty Nepali Migrant Workers in the Gulf Countries by Hari KC CHAPTER 6 The Body and Embodied Experiences in the British Asylum System Developing a Conceptual Perspective by Rebecca Mavin CHAPTER 7 Eritrean Unaccompanied Refugee Minors in The Netherlands Wellbeing and Health by Anna de Haan Yodit Jacob Trudy Mooren and Winta Ghebreab PART C Migrants Strategies and Identities CHAPTER 8 Social Inclusion Processes for unaccompanied minors in the city of Palermo Fostering Autonomy through a New Social Inclusion Model by Roberta Lo Bianco and Georgia Chondrou CHAPTER 9 Urban Resistances and Migrant Activism Challenging the Border Regime in Madrid City by Ana Santamarina and Almudena Cabezas CHAPTER 10 RefConnect A Mobile Social Network for Refugees by Evdokia Kogia Styliani Liberopoulou Nikolaos Alamanos Vasilis Pierros and Christos Michalakelis CHAPTER 11 Halo Halo Nostalgia and Navigating Life for Overseas Filipino Workers OFW s in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia by Simeon S Magliveras

Chacón, Stephen Lee, 2024-01-30 The 2012 Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals DACA program was supposed to be a stepping stone a policy innovation announced by the White House designed to put pressure on Congress for a broader lasting set of legislative changes Those changes never materialized and the people who hoped to benefit from them have been forced to navigate a tense and contradictory policy landscape ever since haunted by these unfulfilled promises Legal Phantoms tells their story After Congress failed to pass a comprehensive immigration bill in 2013 President Obama pivoted in 2014 to supplementing DACA with a deferred action program known as DAPA for the parents of citizens and lawful permanent residents and a DACA expansion DACA in 2014 But challenges from Republican led states prevented even these programs from going into effect Interviews with would be applicants immigrant rights advocates and government officials reveal how such failed immigration reform efforts continue to affect not only those who had hoped to benefit but their families communities and the country in which they have made an uneasy home Out of the ashes of these lost dreams though people find their own paths forward through uncharted legal territory with creativity and resistance
