November 2019 Monthly Current Affairs with MCQs for Competitive Exams Disha Experts,2019-10-21

Handbook of Research-Based Practices for Educating Students with Intellectual Disability Karrie A. Shogren,2016-10-14

The Handbook of Research Based Practices for Educating Students with Intellectual Disability provides an integrated transdisciplinary overview of research based practices for teaching students with intellectual disability This comprehensive volume emphasizes education across life stages from early intervention in schools through the transition to adulthood and highlights major educational and support needs of children and youth with intellectual disability The implications of history recent research and existing information are positioned to systematically advance new practices and explore promising possibilities in the field Driven by the collaboration of accomplished nationally recognized professionals of varied approaches and philosophies the book emphasizes practices that have been shown to be effective through multiple methodologies so as to help readers select interventions based on the evidence of their effectiveness

Alleviating Global Poverty Lewis D. Solomon,2014-12-05 In the book Lewis D Solomon develops the theme that the profit motive can serve as a powerful force for social good in developing nations making a difference in the lives of those trapped in misery and helping millions out of poverty After focusing on three US based venture capital like firms the book presents evidence that for profit corporations many indigenous funded in part by these capital providers have alleviated global poverty These investee firms which seek both financial and social returns serve the impoverished by delivering critically needed but affordable goods and services including quality education preventive healthcare light and power and enhanced agricultural productivity

The Meritocracy Trap Daniel Markovits,2019-09-10 This book flips your world upside down Daniel Markovits argues that meritocracy isn't a virtuous efficient system that rewards the best and brightest Instead it rewards middle class families who can afford huge investments in their children's education Frightening eye opening stuff The Times Books of the Year Even in the midst of runaway economic inequality and dangerous social division it remains an axiom of modern life that meritocracy reigns supreme and promises to open opportunity to all The idea that reward should follow ability and effort is so entrenched in our psyche that even as society divides itself at almost every turn all sides can be heard repeating meritocratic notions Meritocracy cuts to the heart of who we think we are But what if both up and down the social ladder meritocracy is a sham Today meritocracy has become exactly what it was conceived to resist a mechanism for the concentration and dynastic transmission of wealth and privilege across generations Upward mobility has become a fantasy and the embattled middle classes are now more likely to sink into the working poor than to rise into the professional elite At the same time meritocracy now ensnares even those who manage to claw their way to the top requiring rich adults to work with crushing intensity exploiting their expensive educations in order to extract a return All this is not the result of deviations or retreats from meritocracy but rather stems directly from meritocracy's successes This is the radical argument that The Meritocracy Trap prosecutes with rare force comprehensive research and devastating persuasion Daniel Markovits a law professor trained in philosophy and economics is better placed than most to puncture one of the dominant ideas of our age Having spent his life at elite universities he knows from the inside the corrosive system we are trapped within as well as how we can take the first steps towards a world that might afford us both prosperity and dignity Helping Children Learn Mathematics, 5th Australian Edition Robert Reys, Mary Lindquist, Diana V. Lambdin, Nancy L. Smith, Anna Rogers, Leicha Bragg, Audrey Cooke, Melissa Fanshawe, Mark Gronow, 2025-10-10

Resources in Education, 1995-04 Introduction to Teaching Gene E. Hall, Linda F. Quinn, Donna M. Gollnick, 2018-11-29 An ideal introductory text for aspiring teachers Introduction to Teaching Making a Difference in Student Learning is grounded in the realities and complexities found in today's schools Acclaimed authors Gene E Hall Linda F Quinn and Donna M Gollnick thoroughly prepare readers to make a difference as teachers presenting firsthand stories and evidence based practices while offering a student centered approach to learning The authors focus on how to address one of the biggest challenges facing many of today's schools ensuring that all students are learning and help teachers prioritize student learning as their primary focus From true to life challenges that future teachers will face such as high stakes testing reduced funding low retention and Common Core State Standards to the inspiration and joy they will experience throughout their teaching careers the Third Edition paints an importantly authentic picture of the real life of a teacher

The Disengaged Teen Jenny Anderson, Rebecca Winthrop, 2025-03-20 Our education systems are short changing far too many teenagers This book is brimming with insights on how to change that It's an engaging evidence based and practical read about how to develop a generation of lifelong learners Adam Grant 1 New York Times bestselling author of Hidden Potential and Think Again and host of the podcast Re Thinking A powerful new approach to help your teen move from disengagement to drive Adolescents are hardwired to explore and grow and learning is mainly how they do this But a shocking majority of teens are disengaged from school simultaneously bored and overwhelmed As parents we can feel powerless and don't know how to help until now Based on five years of research into why children lose their love of learning award winning journalist Jenny Anderson and the Brookings Institution's global education expert Rebecca Winthrop have created a transformative model that every parent carer and educator needs to know about Identifying four modes of learning that every student goes through resister passenger achiever and explorer you'll find out why understanding what these are is crucial to your child's development and how you can coach them to become a curious resilient and motivated learner With stories from children who have used the tools in this book to become life long learners and with clear strategies on how to become your child's best cheerleader this book is essential reading for everyone who wants to help young people thrive

Assessing the Nation's Report Card Chester E. Finn, 2022-08-23 Assessing the Nation's Report Card examines the history of the National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP and outlines plans for improving and modernizing the organization Educational policy analyst Chester E Finn Jr imparts a rare inside analysis of the evolution of the NAEP program at key moments in its history and provides a firsthand perspective of crucial decisions and core goals that have helped shape it. The result is a revealing survey of the US's most influential source of data on K-12 achievement. Assessing the Nation's Report Card offers readers an in-depth understanding and appreciation of NAEP as well as an examination of its shortcomings, its controversies, and its current issues. The book explores why NAEP is considered the gold standard of educational assessments yet is much lesser known than other types of standardized testing. Finn underscores the promise of applying the results in addressing achievement gaps, boosting federal accountability, and driving education reform and policy. He also discloses how the data are collected and what the results can and cannot tell us. For more than 50 years, this ambitious federal testing program has informed the decisions of policy makers and educational leaders as they advocate for educational improvements in the US. Acknowledging the nation's evolving need for actionable information about students and schools, Finn provides an assured and rare overview of the existing program and proposes possibilities for the future.
