The Reagan administration was committed to stepping up the competition with the Soviet Union in the areas where the rivalry was sharpest. It accelerated the most expensive peacetime military buildup in American history and began the Strategic Defense Initiative (this was often referred to as Star Wars), which was designed to free the world from the nuclear stalemate in which each side's society was hostage to the weapons of the other. But the Reagan years have demonstrated the limits to both policies. They have made it clear that the United States, like the Soviet Union, will have to settle for military equilibrium in the great power rivalry...
