When my mother was a teenager, her father didn't have cell phones. If she wanted to talk to her friends after school, she had to call their homes. Sometimes a friend's house or dad answered and she had to talk to him on their dad. Her mom had a cell phone then, if she had a friend called on the phone for a long time, she would know her phone was busy, so actually she could get calls. My mom got used to both her trying to get the phone not busy.

Today, some kids have a lot of friends, but all parents check their phone records and find their text messages and call history. Kids can get in trouble. Parents don't always let their phone be on when they're in a long car, so their parents worry that in the family their communicating with their friends. But parents today will get more trouble because their phone history can see their texts.
