Molle

14 Waec Human And Practical Geography:

War, Agriculture, and Food Paul Brassley, Yves Segers, Leen van Molle, 2012 Between the 1930s and the 1950s rural life in Europe underwent profound changes partly as a result of the Second World War and partly as a result of changes which had been in progress over many years This book examines a range of European countries from Scandinavia to Spain and Ireland to Hungary during this crucial period and identifies the common pressures to which they all responded and the features that were unique to individual countries In particular it examines the processes of agricultural development over western Europe as a whole the impact of the war on international trading patterns the relationships between states and farmers and the changing identities of rural populations It presents a bold attempt to write rural history on a European scale and will be of interest not only to historians and historical geographers but also to those interested in the historical background to the Common Agricultural Policy of the European Union to which the changes discussed here provided a dramatic prologue
