Holly Barcus, Roy Jones, Serge Schmitz

2014 Tourism Pat Phase 2:

ECRM2014-Proceedings of the 13th European Conference on Research Methodology for Business and Management Studies Dr Martin Rich, Dr Anne Brown, 2014-06-16 Tourism Marketing in Bangladesh Azizul Hassan, 2020-10-20 Tourism is often a key driver of economic growth in many countries. The recent upward trends of tourism and hospitality education in higher academic institutions in Bangladesh suggests a growing tourism sector. Very little has been written on Bangladesh's tourism industry. This is the first edited volume published from an international publisher which looks at this industry and how it has developed and flourished. The book begins by looking at tourism policy planning and provides a comprehensive overview of topics from tourism products and services in Bangladesh to how they are being marketed. It also discusses how private and public tourism institutions can address future long term trends. This book will appeal to those interested to learn more about developing tourism industry in emerging economies and may provide invaluable lessons from Bangladesh's experience and success. A Modern Guide to Tourism Economics Croes, Robertico, Yang, Yang, 2022-09-06 This Modern Guide captures the evolution of foundational tenets, theories, frameworks and models that buttressed tourism economics into an evolving discipline, shining light on both new and old approaches. It systematically examines current and future trends and issues related to new economic perspectives, consolidating the notion of tourism economics as a discipline.

Contemporary Studies in Environment and Tourism Recep Efe, Munir Ozturk, 2017-05-11 The tourism industry is striving hard to create attractive worlds for its customers. Both as a necessity and as a challenge, this field is overwhelmed by the imagination economy but raises several questions about tourists providing opportunities to move deeper into the understanding of complexities involved in relationships among tourists, tourism sites and their historical structure and environmental sustainability. As a result of this, a serious academic interest in tourism has developed over recent decades as a complex aspect of investigation into humans and their environment. This volume brings together case studies from different parts of the world focusing on tourism and its interactions with the environment. It provides a general outline of theoretical issues and their practicality in different industrialising countries from both the East and the West. The book will appeal to researchers involved in tourism studies and environmental interactions as well as academicians and tourism agencies.

Rural Transformations Holly Barcus, Roy Jones, Serge Schmitz, 2022-03-30 This book focuses on the transformation of rural places, peoples and land endemic to the contemporary manifestations of globalization. Migration, global economic restructuring and climate change are rapidly transforming rural places across the globe. Yet global attention characteristically focuses on urban social and economic issues, neglecting the continued roles of rural people and places. Organized around the three core themes of demographic change, rural-urban partnerships and innovations and landscape change, the case studies included in this volume represent both the Global North and Global South and underscore the complexity and multi-scalar nature of these contemporary challenges in rural development planning and sustainability. This book would be valuable supplementary reading for both students and professionals in the fields of rural land management and rural planning Routledge Handbook on Tourism and Small Island States in the Pacific Marcus L.
