Pamela Aall, Chester A. Crocker

2014 Zimsec Maths Papers Leaks:

Youth Development in South Africa Botshabelo Maja, Busani Ngcaweni, 2023-10-03 Youth Development in South Africa Harnessing the Demographic Dividend is a compelling snapshot of thirty years of South Africa's democratic dispensation and what it has meant for the youth of the country as well as how its demographic dividend can be harnessed for a fairer society in the future

The Justification of War and International Order Lothar Brock, Hendrik Simon, 2021 In the past few decades the understanding of the relationship between nations has undergone a radical transformation The role of the traditional nation state is diminishing along with many of the traditional vocabularies which were once used to describe what has been called ever since Jeremy Bentham coined the phrase in 1780 international law The older boundaries between states are growing ever more fluid new conceptions and new languages have emerged which are slowly coming to replace the image of a world of sovereign independent nation states which has dominated the study of international relations since the early nineteenth century This redefinition of the international arena demands a new understanding of classical and contemporary questions in international and legal theory It is the editors conviction that the best way to achieve this is by bridging the traditional divide between international legal theory intellectual history and legal and political history The aim of the series therefore is to provide a forum for historical studies from classical antiquity to the twenty first century that are theoretically informed and for philosophical work that is historically conscious in the hope that a new vision of the rapidly evolving international world its past and its possible future may emerge Book jacket

The Enablers Frank Vogl, 2021-11-15 Authoritarian regimes in many countries and the men that lead them depend on the international management of licit and illicit funds under their control Frank Vogl shows that curbing their activities for their kleptocratic clients is critical to secure democracy enhance national security and ensure international financial stability

The Fabric of Peace in Africa Pamela Aall, Chester A. Crocker, 2017-06-05 Africa has experienced dozens of conflicts over a variety of issues during the past two decades Responding to these conflicts requires concerted action to manage the crises the violence the political discord and the humanitarian consequences of prolonged fighting It is also necessary to address the long term social and economic impacts of conflict to rebuild communities societies and states that have been torn apart To accomplish this requires the involvement of institutions and groups rarely considered in formal official African conflict management activities schools universities religious institutions media commercial enterprises legal institutions civil society groups youth women and migrants These groups and organizations have an important role to play in building a sense of identity fairness shared norms and cohesion between state and society all critical components of the fabric of peace and security in Africa This volume brings together leading experts from Africa Europe and North America to examine these critical social institutions and groups and consider how they can either improve or impede peaceful conflict resolution The overarching questions that are explored by the authors are What constitutes social cohesion and resilience in the face of conflict What are the threats to cohesion and resilience And how can the positive elements be fostered and by whom The second of two volumes on African conflict management capacity by the editors The Fabric of Peace in Africa Looking beyond the State opens new doors of understanding for students scholars and practitioners focused on strengthening peace in Africa the first volume Minding the Gap African Conflict Management in a Time of change focused on the role of mediation and peacekeeping in managing violence and political crises The Times Index ,2005 Indexes the Times and its supplements
