Superabsorbent Polymers Aiqin Wang, Yongfeng Zhu, 2025-09-12 This book introduces in detail the development history synthesis methods physicochemical properties and the main application in agriculture hygiene construction environmental management bioscience and more based on the multiple properties including absorption flexibility elasticity sensitivity etc Edited by experts in the area the book also highlights the biodegradability commercial viability and market potential of SAPs SAP composites the feasibility of using biomass as raw materials for SAP production This well rounded consideration of the topic makes this book suitable for a range of academic professionals and industry professionals working in polymer science material science and environmental science European Journal of Policing Studies ,2018-07-31

Contents Introduction Antoinette Verhage Lieselot Bisschop and Wim Hardyns br Articles How to Police a Porous Fortress Monica den Boer 1 Abstract The purpose of this article is to provide an overview of the way in which the European Union has gradually but steadily built a security architecture based on the control of mobility and borders Different logics of policing are interwoven in several projects which are strongly interdependent with technological innovation Furthermore the European policing of mobility is primarily performed by mounting surveillance both inside and beyond European borders by means of which all forms of movement transactions travelling etc are subjected to intensive monitoring by multiple actors who are interlinked through strategies and systems The main finding is that border policing is shifting in a fundamental way from fixed to fluid from territorial to virtual and from physical to technological Hence paradoxically though mobility is strongly promoted as one of the main virtues of the European Union Europe s precautionary protection may be at ill ease with the free movement of people The article seeks to stimulate the knowledge and debate about deeper shifts in Europe s security apparatus and develops this from a law enforcement perspective Keywords Europe borders security mobility technology 1 Academic Dean at the Police Academy of The Netherlands Member of the Committee on European Integration of the Advisory Council on International Affairs and Visiting Professor at the College of Europe in Bruges Police Science in Germany History and New Perspectives Joachim Kersten 1 and Ansgar Burchard 2 Abstract In the German speaking academic world Police Science Polizeiwissenschaft is a fairly new and little known area of social science Accordingly the academic status of police science is anything but firmly established but rather at a hybrid stage of development The very combination of policing and academic study research seems to remain largely incompatible not only to police managers but also to main stream sociology German police science differs substantially from the Anglo American Australian approach One main difference pertains to legal traditions others are due to historical and cultural developments that will be taken up in this descriptive essay However Anglo American Australian police theories have a lot to offer to German and European police scientists and this will be demonstrated For a future common approach to an evolving European police science similar descriptions will be required from other European countries to establish a comparative foundation of joint EU police studies

Some of the principal dimensions of such a comparison will be sketched in this essay It concludes with a presentation of empirically based police studies carried out by instructors and Master students at the newly founded German Police University in Münster Topics are media coverage of clashes between police and demonstrators a typology of third party intervention in cases of assault in public places and COREPOL EU FP7 a comparative security research project aiming at an improvement of police minority relations through means of restorative justice programs Keywords Police Science in Germany accountability YouTube public relations Facebook civil courage violent assaults 1 Professor and Head of Department of the Department of Police Science at the German Police University Germany DAAD Professor at Northwestern University and guest professor in Maastricht NL in Sydney Australia and in Tokyo Japan 2 Senior Researcher for COREPOL EU FP7

Global Responses to Domestic Violence Eve S. Buzawa, Carl G. Buzawa, 2017-06-19 This volume addresses the varied response to domestic violence in a comparative international context The chapters are laid out in a consistent format to cover the nature of the domestic violence problem theoretical explanations the criminal justice response as well as health care and social service interventions in each country The intent of the book is to provide an introduction to the attitudes and responses to domestic violence in various regions to provide meaningful comparisons and share information on best practices for different populations and regions There are considerable variations to domestic violence approaches across cultures and regions In some places it is considered a private or family matter which can help it perpetuate At the same time the United States approach to domestic violence has been criticized by some as being too focused on the criminal justice system rather than other types of interventions which aim to keep families intact This comprehensive work aims to highlight innovative approaches from several regions important cultural sensitivities and concerns and provide analysis to identify the strengths and weakness of various approaches This work will be of interest to researchers in criminology and criminal justice as well as related fields who deal with domestic violence and violence against women including sociology and social work and international justice Practitioners and policymakers will also find it informative
