Any Body There? Craig Michael Mueller, 2017-07-21 Any body there we may wonder as we watch people engage with their smart phones while being oblivious to what is going on around them Anybody there is the question facing the church as it wrestles with declining religious affiliation Craig Mueller considers this contemporary context and offers a response based in an incarnational spirituality accentuating the body and finding expression in corporate multisensory liturgy Mueller creatively weaves together topics from our digital lives with personal and congregational stories and theological liturgical and spiritual reflections Concepts such as virtuality the analog 24 7 connectivity access design and GPS are juxtaposed with themes of embodiment mortality sabbath mystery beauty and vocation Drawing on his experience as a pastor to millennials his studies in liturgical theology and his work on the effects of technology on daily life Mueller proposes that corporate worship is an antidote to the distraction fragmentation and spiritual hunger in society today As humans continue to merge with machines participation in the Sunday liturgy reminds us of what it means to be human a deeper connection to our bodies and the earth and a clear sense of purpose and mission for our everyday lives

Sacramentality Renewed Lizette Larson-Miller, 2016-04-11 Tracing developments in sacramental theology over the past twenty five years this study explores a growing ecumenical dynamism in both the academic study of sacramentality and its centrality in pastoral applications But how does ecumenical excitement in a renewed discovery of sacramental theology fit with different theologies of church and different pastoral beliefs and practices How does the universality of academic accessibility in the form of an expansive ecumenical sharing of perspectives meet the particularities of pastoral reality and ecclesial polity Arguing in favor of fruitful ecumenical conversation this book also focuses on the crucial interaction of ecclesiology liturgical practice and sacramentality which raises the need for a creative tension between the particularities of a given ecclesial system and the catholicity of Christian sacramentality Using Anglican sacramental theologies and Anglicanism as vehicles of exploration this study contributes to an overview of the state of the field of sacramental theology in the twenty first century while challenging the assumption that one size fits all In sacramental theology as in other important areas of Christian life unity in diversity may be the basis for authentic lived sacramentality
