Using your textbook and the assignments you have completed in this unit, complete the following review. You will need to define or discuss in detail any information regarding each topic.

HAND WRITE your answers on a SEPARATE sheet of paper. Be able to analyze excerpts and political cartoons.

1. Imperialism: Stronger nations dominate and control the political, economic, and cultural life of another country.
2. Sepoy Mutiny: Indian Soldiers (that were put in charge and trained by the British military) rebelled against British culture and laws. Britain put down the rebellion and took control of India, Queen Victoria takes the title Empress of India.
3. "New Imperialism": 1800s-early 1900s, European nation took natural resources from Africa and Asia to boost their industrialization in their own country.
4. "Scramble for Africa": European countries raced to claim as much land from each other in order to maximize their access to new raw materials and people.
5. Suez Canal: Shortened route from Europe to Asia and the rest of the world by months. Increased commerce and trade as well as allow the British Navy to dominate the world.
6. Berlin Conference: European countries met to divide up and map Africa without causing a war.
7. Opium Wars: British sold Opium to Chinese for tea. Chinese government angry about addictions.
8. "Spheres of Influence": Strong country claims exclusive ties or control of a country or region.

Absolute War Mark Hewitson, 2017 Wars have played a fundamental part in modern German history Although infrequent conflicts involving German states have usually been extensive and often catastrophic constituting turning points for Europe as a whole Absolute War is the first in a series of studies from Mark Hewitson that explore how such conflicts were experienced by soldiers and civilians during wartime and how they were subsequently imagined and understood during peacetime from Clausewitz and Kleist to Junger and Adorno Without such an understanding it is difficult to make sense of the dramatic shifts characterising the politics of Germany and Europe over the past two centuries The studies argue that the ease or reluctance with which Germans went to war and the far reaching consequences of such wars on domestic politics were related to soldiers and civilians attitudes to violence and death as well as to long term transformations in contemporaries conceptualisation of conflict Absolute War reassesses the meaning of military conflict for the millions of German subjects who were directly implicated in the Revolutionary and Napoleonic Wars Based on a re reading of contemporary diaries letters memoirs official correspondence press reports pamphlets treatises plays and cartoons this volume refocuses attention on combat and conscription as the central components of new forms of mass warfare It concentrates in particular on the impact of violence killing and death on many soldiers and some civilians experiences and subsequent memories of conflict War has often been conceived of as an act of violence pushed to its utmost bounds as Clausewitz put it but the relationship between military conflicts and violent acts remains a problematic one

Joseph Simmons, 2014-08-27 Tolstoy's fame as one of the world's greatest novelists has never been in doubt but the importance of his views on the social, moral, and religious issues of his time is not so widely recognised. This study, first published in 1973, presents an introduction to the historical and cultural background of Tolstoy's lifetime, then going on to consider the major events of his developing personality as a writer and reformer. As well as considering the famous novels and literary criticism, Simmons treats his educational theories and practice, famine relief work, spiritual crises, and religious, social, and moral beliefs as reflected in controversial writings such as What I Believe, What Then Must We Do, and The Kingdom of God Is Within You. He also investigates Tolstoy's involvement in government, war, and revolution, and the relevance of his reformist views in the contemporary world.
