Unwin,2020-02-18 Each of these Analysing Architecture Notebooks is devoted to a particular theme in understanding the rich and varied workings of architecture They can be thought of as addenda to the foundation volume Analysing Architecture which first appeared in 1997 and has subsequently been enlarged in three further editions Examining these extra themes as a series of Notebooks rather than as additional chapters in future editions allows greater space for more detailed exploration of a wider variety of examples whilst avoiding the risk of the original book becoming unwieldy Shadows may be insubstantial but they are nevertheless an important element in architecture In prehistoric times we sought shade as a refuge from the hot sun and chilling rain Through history architects have used shadows to draw to mould form to paint pictures to orchestrate atmosphere to indicate the passing of time as well as to identify place Sometimes shadow can be the substance of architecture Curve Simon Unwin,2019-04-03 Each of these Analysing Architecture Notebooks is devoted to a particular theme in understanding the rich and varied workings of architecture They can be thought of as addenda to the foundation volume Analysing Architecture which first appeared in 1997 and has subsequently been enlarged in three further editions Examining these extra themes as a series of Notebooks rather than as additional chapters in future editions allows greater space for more detailed exploration of a wider variety of examples whilst avoiding the risk of the original book becoming unwieldy Curve is a divisive issue in architecture Some see curves as expensive and decadent others as an expression of transcendence a way that the human mind can express its freedom from quotidian constraints Yet others use curves to emulate some of the most beautiful forms in nature This Notebook considers the various authorities to which architects look for the generation of their curves It also considers the aspirations curves manifest in architectural form What Student Architects Should Do Simon Unwin,2025-06-02 As a first year student the challenges of learning how to do architecture can be daunting Though not prescribing a particular way there are as many ways to do architecture as there are architects this Notebook outlines what you should do to cultivate your own distinctive capacity for architectural design Architecture is a rich and varied subject a multifaceted and multidimensional skill Learning to do it is not easy It has many subtleties Becoming fluent can take many years Informed by decades of discussing architecture and its challenges with students this Notebook will help you lay foundations for a rewarding career as a creative architect All Simon Unwin s books explore architecture not just as a matter of form and space but in terms of its primal driving force the universal need and desire to make places for life Each of these Analysing Architecture Notebooks is devoted to a particular theme in understanding the rich and varied workings of architecture They can be thought of as addenda to the foundation volume Analysing Architecture the Universal Language of Place Making which first appeared in 1997 and has subsequently been enlarged in four further editions Examining these extra themes as a series of Notebooks rather than as additional chapters in future editions allows greater space for more detailed exploration of a wider variety of examples whilst avoiding the risk of the original book becoming unwieldy An Architecture Notebook Simon Unwin,2000 A companion volume to the author s successful text Analysing Architecture this book follows the same approach and format to explore conceptual themes in architecture further
